IS BIRMINGHAM BURNING BARRIES IN BURNING

To the Editor: Before I had a chance to see last week's Evening...

I am quite sure that no fireman said that I told my informant...

However, my informant was right in his statement...

I am sure that no fireman said that I told my informant...

In every case of fire you have to be ready to take the first step...

Supposing individual firemen were so blind as not to realize the crime...

The result of the investigation was naturally of a disappointing nature...

Personally I am very close to the village on Yorkville road...

It is not fair to Detroit and, if the case goes into a store for prosecution...

When you do not have a water tank, you ought to have a water tank...

Then what do we get for our money? When we need water the most to save...

The Challenge

By Daniel Henderson

Christ is walking life's shores again Christ is choosing his fishermen, With nets far-spread for their hauling! Christ looks in at the office door! Christ is searching mill and store. It's you! It's you! He's calling! 'Lord, I'll pray here in my pew!' 'Pray—but My laborers are few, And earth is high disaster!' 'Lord I'll serve with my sect and creed! Let others meet the wide world's need! 'I need all sects!' says the Master! 'Lord, my business holds me here!' 'Lord, I am planning a great career— Success will crown my trying!' 'Lord, my fields await the plow!' 'Lord, my orchards burgeon now!'— But the fisher of souls keeps crying! Lift the sail, with its blood-red cross! Lift it here, with its seas-red. 'Till all lands hail its glowing! Who will help where it cleaves the dark? Who will be a John or Mark? Clasp Christ's hand, and be going!

This poem is the contribution of Daniel Henderson, well known as a magazine man and writer of verse, to the success of the Interchurch World Movement, which is a thrifty denomination in co-operation. The purpose of the Interchurch Movement is to promote co-operation among America's churches in their missionary, benevolent and educational enterprises all over the world.
