

PERSONAL

Charles Boughner, of South Wood ward avenue, was presented with a number of handsome gifts last Tuesday evening when about 20 of his friends surprised him at the home of his mother, Mrs. Fannie Boughner, of Woodward avenue honoring his birth day anniversary. The guests were entertained during the evening by several musical and dramatic numbers, and were seated at supper at 10 o'clock. There were no out-of-town persons present.

At her home on Greenwood avenue Mrs. R. H. Mann was hostess to the Birmingham Bridge Club Wednesday noon at luncheon. During the afternoon the guests enjoyed cards. The members of the club have decided to have 12 o'clock luncheons in place of the 1 o'clock luncheons of the past. The objection was brought up that the playing was carried too far into the afternoon. This was the first of the noon affairs.

The Girls Reading Club of St. James Episcopal Church, met at the home of Mrs. Loretta Stanly on South Woodward avenue, last Wednesday afternoon. Plans were made for their part of the Xmas program and during the afternoon they finished the clothing for the Franklin street settlement children, which they started several weeks ago.

Claud Safford, of 129 Stanley avenue, who has been ill for several months, has been removed to the State Hospital at Pontiac, from which place he was taken last spring after receiving care for some time. Mrs. Safford and their seven children will remain on Stanley for the present.

Edward McHugh, of Pierce street, has been seriously ill for the past ten days. Mr. McHugh had for years been connected with the Detroit United Railway, and according to statements made Wednesday, has been absent from work for several days during that time.

Wednesday evening, Thornton Walker was host to the OAK "K" Club boys at his home. The earlier part of the evening was spent in rehearsing the play which the boys will present soon, and the remainder of the time was devoted to games and music.

The music department of the firm of Mrs. Noble Gravin, in the Levington building, has been moved to room 2 at the front of the building. For the past six months room 2 has been the headquarters for the Victrolas and Records.

Mrs. Peabody McBride Perry who has been spending the winter in California, writes to friends here that "having the time of her life." She will return early in the spring.

Miss Viola La Grant, Village Clerk, will spend the holidays with her parents at Bad Axe.

Miss Florence Kitchen will be entertained by friends at Grass Lake over the holidays.

Thursday afternoon the Pythian Sisters entertained with a card party in their hall.
