Coming as it does the very height of winter social activity, the informal dancing party which the young people of Birmingham will enjoy the evening of December 29, is being looked forward to with much pleasure. Novel decorations will characterize the event and with Fintel's Orchestra in attendance and several delightful surprise "stunts" promised for the evening one of the truly successful parties of the season is anticipated. Invitations were received the latter part of last week, and announced the following hostesses for the affair: Mrs. Minnie McChelan, Miss Thelma Morris and Miss Odessa Weaver.
