and bring the family along! Mother and the children will be just as much interested in the wonderful sights at the telephone exchange as you. Gather them together some afternoon for a personal exchange, for through your exchange. Your nearest telephone office will welcome the opportunity to receive you. Every Tuesday and Thursday afternoon, between 2 and 4, the exchange manager or his personal representative will be on hand to show you through and explain everything. He is anxious, too, to show you the many things that have been done to make your service what it should be.
