ON THE FUNNY SIDE

His Holler.

Customer (in cheap restaurant)—Give me a cup of chocolate with cream.

Waiter (hollering order)—Cake and cow for one.

Customer — Waiter, make that whipped cream.

Waiter (hollering order)—Chastise Sukey.

If Atlas Had a Shake.

Benham—I think our boy is getting along too rapidly at school.

Mrs. Benham—What's the matter now?

Benham—He asked me today if Atlas had happened to have a chill when he was supporting the earth it would have caused an earthquake.

Wifey Didn't.

"You brute! The idea of your calling your wife the last rose of summer and other insulting names."

"Hold on, judge. I never used that metaphor. You see, a rose dries up some time."

Was Sure.

"George said he loved me the minute he saw me."

"How's that?"

"He said I was almost the opposite of his first wife, and that was just the kind of a girl he'd always been looking for."

Listening In.

A western man after eleven years of experiments has invented a device that enables a user of a party telephone line to identify any other subscriber who may be listening to his conversation.

Wise Indeed!

He is a wise man who can on occasion put up or shut up—but he is a wiser man who can put up and shut up.—Savannah Morning News.

Egotism.

"Why do you carry a lantern in your quest of that rare specimen, an honest man?"

"Merely to be original," replied Diogenes. "Ordinarily a man engaged in such a search thinks all he needs is a looking glass."

Behind the Scenes.

First Chorus Girl—That vain leading lady thinks she is beautiful. She says her face grows on the audience as soon as she steps before the footlights.

Second Chorus Girl—Think goodness, it did not grow on me.

ALSO, WHEN SHE'S ABSENT.

Ma.

"Pa, when do they call a woman an old hen?"

"When she has become hopelessly set in her way, my son."

Shares the Credit.

"The pen is mightier than the sword." But if you'll step and think, Who pen is mighty if the bee Without the dip of ink.

The Great Mimic.

First Actor (didactically)—After all, Death is the star tragedian.

Second Actor—I don't know. I always think of him as a low comedian—a mere mimic—because he's always taking some one off.

He Got a Reward.

"When the teacher heard me swear, she asked me where I learned it."

"What did you tell her?"

"Oh! I didn't give you away! I blamed it on the parrot."

Break His Neck.

"I see that a man fell downstairs last week and cured himself of rheumatism by breaking both of his legs."

"The fellow with a sore throat would be taking an awful chance."

These Jolting Ambulances.

Hospital Doctor—They said you had appendicitis—but I find you're bruised all over.

Mr. Jaxx—Yes; I guess I am. They brought me here in an ambulance.

He Didn't Stay Very Long.

Caller—Beasie, what did your sister say when you told her I was here?

Beasie—She said, "Great Heavens! That bore here again!"

Make Bells.

The science of bell casting has been practiced in one English foundry for nearly 300 years.

Our Christmas Banking Club Is a Necessity

MANY people—men, women and children—do not accumulate money because they have no set plan for doing so. Some thrifty ones do, but the vast majority do not save their money.

Our Christmas Banking Club provides a plan whereby a certain specified sum is deposited each week for 50 weeks. You need only select the Club you wish to join and then make your deposits regularly (or in advance).

There are no dues or fines; no "red tape" in connection with the Club.

Everyone is welcome.

Why We Have This Club Plan

IT IS the aim of our Bank to give the best service to the greatest number of people in our Village and Community. We wanted a simple plan that would make it easy for those of moderate and even those of small means to accumulate money.

Our Christmas Banking Club is just such a plan—depositing a specified sum regularly—and it is now open in our Bank. It is our wish and hope that every man, woman and child will join our Club, even those who already have Bank Accounts, so that they may see the great benefits of regularly banking their money, even if the amounts be small.

You will be welcome, no matter what Club you join.

You Will Receive 4% Interest
