"This little boy's health was so poor we were afraid we were going to lose him... Parents were almost hopeless, but he is now well and strong."

"DIDN'T HE SEND SOME WORD TO ME?" A woman's perspective on her husband's absence.

With Angela looking hard over his shoulder, Mr. Colton seemed to be exploring the woman's face. He began to speak.

"I am asking Mr. Henry Hilliard to bring you this letter personally. I want him to tell you how he feels about you."

"I want you to know that since I've had time to think about this, I've come to the conclusion that you were right and I was wrong. Maybe you won't remember the letter I wrote you."

"I'm glad to hear that," said Mr. Colton. "That was one of the two best letters I ever received."
