The striped cut suit on a broad stone in an old Flemish kitchen. She smiled her red lips almost across her whiskers at the girl. "You're always talking about a 'Belgium' as though it were the farthest in the world. I wonder how they like to be governed out of town in this distant country. The rest of you citizens don't have any more to do with it." "The citizens of Belgium are not interested in it," she said. "I heard the captain of the camp was here and he said the soldiers are not interested in it. I heard the captain of the camp was here and he said the soldiers are not interested in it.
