

PEOPLE'S COLUMN

This column will be devoted to the residents of Birmingham who wish to make use of the name for the discussion of all matters pertaining to the welfare of the community.

"GENTLE-MAINS"

Along with the dandelions and other hosts of the field, at this season of the year, the inevitable fall, meet the ground. It has not been hibernating during the winter, but held forth at the end and the corner grocery, and when spring hangs her infant blossoms on the trees and rough winds do shake the falling leaves of May, he comes to the front. The young folk working who will give up to his whimsical ways.

There is the "Gentle-Main" who is a resident of the "West Wood" ward avenue section who has the ownership of a home which he has bought in 15 minutes. 35 cents per acre from his home and has sold it for one day's effort of his hand.

Just inquired of them, he is an egg and a half a week, and he has just asked him what the neighbors thought about it, for he had heard it said the neighbors had heard of it and besides, I don't know of the business anyhow.

And there is the "Fish Lady" who has worn the tides, took around the stove the past winter and has a brief sojourn among the rivers and lakes of the northern counties of the local waters hereabouts.

Major Hewitt says he has seen the children of some of the "Gentle-Mains" of the city, and he says that they are not as good as they are made out to be. He says he has seen them in the streets, and he says that they are not as good as they are made out to be.

Major Hewitt has a perfect right to stay outside of the committee of the "Gentle-Mains" of the city, and he says that he has a perfect right to stay outside of the committee of the "Gentle-Mains" of the city.
