DID YOU EVER THINK?

Probably not our newspaper reader out of a hundred ever pauses to think of the debt he owes to the newspaper advertiser...

No matter how there is a very definite debt which every reader of the Centric and every reader of this community owes to those who advertise in our columns...

If it were not for our advertiser, either one or two things would result—you would be without a local newspaper or if you had one you would pay two or three times the present subscription price for it...

It is, therefore, apparent that the Centric community owes a debt to those who advertise in the local newspaper. Usually it owes a debt to them aside from that fact...

We have many evidences in the fact of the warm feelings of our readers here that their friendship has been shown in many ways. And it is at this time we feel like calling upon them for additional evidence of their loyalty to the old newspaper...

IT'S PRETTY GOOD

It's pretty good, it's pretty good, it's pretty good, it's pretty good, it's pretty good, it's pretty good, it's pretty good, it's pretty good...
