CHAPTER VII.

Webster went back now, certain as to the result of the journey, to discover that he was one day late in finding the Atlanta business office of the company...

"The Outlook is Very Blue"

He had not expected to find the office and that company's depute at home and in Birmingham, which he had expected to find in the city...

"I wonder you have had," she said, "any news of the man who was with you last night?"

"I have no news to bother his life," he said, "but I have a very good idea of what he is doing now."

"I have no news to bother his life," he said, "but I have a very good idea of what he is doing now."
