

PERSONALS

Twenty youngsters in Birmingham enjoyed the delightful "weenie" roast given Tuesday evening by Mrs. Hunt. The affair was arranged in honor of her little daughter, Miss Kathleen. Just after dark the children made a huge heap of fallen autumn leaves and they were lit. Games were played until there was not a hot glow made ready for the "weenies". The little tots were cared for during the evening by Mrs. Hunt, Mrs. Noble Gravin and Mrs. Guy Gravin.

Monday evening the members of the choir of the Latta Day Saints of Pontiac, were entertained at the home of Mr. and Mrs. C. C. Gravin of Pierce street at dinner. An old fashioned "chili" supper was served to twenty guests while a musical program followed by games furnished entertainment for the remainder of the evening.

Mrs. W. H. Spreen of California, is here visiting her son, W. W. Spreen of Bates street. A number of pretty luncheons and bridges have been given in her honor within the past two weeks. Mrs. Spreen will leave Birmingham in the course of ten days for Chicago to visit her sister before returning to the west.
