

Prepare Your Boy for the Battle of Life

"Dad what does it mean to own a share of stock?"—a boy asked the other day.

Does your boy know what it means? Have you ever told him anything about this character of property, and the desirability of its possession?

That information is just as necessary to him as is the knowledge of how to work, and of what working for a living means. Most young men know how to earn money; few know how to accumulate property. Their fathers never told them.

Why not give your boy a piece of property to be proud of? Buy him one or more shares of Consumers Power Company Preferred Stock. As he grows older, tell him what these shares of Preferred Stock mean. Tell him that this money is usefully employed in creating a Public Utility—whose service everyone needs. And tell him how this money which he has invested is earning an income for him.

Consumers Power Company Preferred Stock Yields in Dividends 7.37% Interest on Your Investment

The price of this stock is but $95 a share on par value of $100. We are confining this offer to the people of communities we serve, because we want those who pay the bills to draw the Company's dividends.

You can buy on the installment plan—$10 down per share, and the balance monthly. Surely it is worth that small investment to educate your boy in the value of thrift; to give him a sense of proprietorship and responsibility. He'll feel like a real financier when the dividend checks come in.

TERMS OF OFFERING

Plan No. 1 (Cash payment.) Under this plan we offer the 7 1/2 Cumulative Preferred Stock of Consumers Power Company at $95 per share and accrued dividends to date of payment for stock.

Purchasers under this plan have the option of withdrawing all partial payments at any time prior to the date of final payment for the stock, on 30 days notice, and in the event of such withdrawal the Company agrees to pay 3 per cent interest on the amounts paid in up to date of notice of withdrawal.

Spread the kernels upon trays to a depth of one inch if drying in a shed or one-half inch if drying in a barn. The corn is to be dried in the sun. Stir the grains thoroughly several times during the drying to break up any clumps.

Sun Factor in Drying Corn.

It is practically impossible to bring even to a sufficient degree of dryness by the method of drying in a shed if corn is dried in the sun. It should be finished by pouring into broad pans, placed in the open of the shed and warming to 100 degrees in 24 hours. If for two hours. Whether the drying is done in the sun, in a cook shed, or in a commercial drier, it should be continued until the grain is hard, well-transparent, and will break with clean, glasslike fractures if crushed.

Before starting from a mass of silks, glumes and hulls or cobs. This may be done by pouring the corn from one vessel to another in a strong draft. When the corn is dry, store it in a clean, well-ventilated place. It should be stored in a large bag, which should be kept dry.

Do not allow the drying process to stop from the time it is started until the corn is fairly dry. HOUSEHOLD NOTES

Good roast pork makes a nice mock chicken salad.

Fine white stockings make excellent wash clothes.

Canned or fresh blackberries make a delicious shortcake.

Cheese should never be played in a tightly covered dish or jar.

If your cake frosting becomes gummy add a teaspoonful of vinegar to it.

When you fry food that splatters lay a piece of thick wrapping paper over the top of the frying pan to completely cover it. The grease will go into the paper instead of all over the range and possibly the wall.

To remove grease spots on tables or floors, moisten them with cold water and scrub before scrubbing. This will easily obliterate the spots.

Arrange your kitchen equipment so that it will give you the most help and take the least work.
