CLIZBE SWORN INTO OFFICE—DISCLOSES FUTURE PLANS

Promises water relief; better roads for Birmingham planned; all citizens asked to co-operate

Amidst the plaudits of a large gathering of his fellow-citizens and directly following his being sworn into office by Justice of the Peace, V. L. Lockrow, Warren D. Clizbe, elected President of Birmingham at the special election on September 13, made a stirring address to his audience at the Commission meeting in the Village Clerk's office Monday night. For more than an hour Mr. Clizbe held the floor, outlining various plans for the betterment of Birmingham and the surrounding territory.

The Water Situation.

"The greatest problem confronting Birmingham at present is the water situation," declared Mr. Clizbe, "and, altho I cannot promise immediate relief from this dilemma, the people of Birmingham may rest assured that every effort to solve this problem will be made. I am in favor of spending money for this project. Mr. Quarton and Mr. Schlaack, the other two Commissioners, passed a resolution some time ago, ordering a 12 inch well to be sunk at the present water works station. I, for one, am in favor of going even farther than this—I would sink at least three wells. We would then be assured of getting water from at least one of the three wells. I propose to let the test-well on the Latham farm alone until the courts decide just what rights the Village has there. In the meantime, to avoid unnecessary delay, I suggest that we sink a well west of the Village, on high ground, and another northwest of Birmingham. We are told, on eminent authority, that Birmingham lies in the midst of abundant water supply, then let us get to it." Mr. Clizbe impressed his hearers with the sincerity and seriousness of his arguments. In his various suggestions he was supported by both Mr. Quarton and Mr. Schlaack.

Roads to be paved.

Another of the constructive plans of the new President was the future improvement of roads within Birmingham alone, but outside as well. Mr. Clizbe showed clearly that Birmingham must expand in growth in the immediate future. He said that Birmingham must show her outside neighbors that she "means business" and will do everything in her power to enhance the interests of the residents of the out-lying territory. To attain this end he had, he said, appointed several tentative committees to secure the signatures of residents along Southfield avenue, from Birmingham south to the 8-mile road; on Adams avenue, the entire length of the Bile bordering the Village limits and the frontage on East Maple avenue, from Adams avenue to the Rochester paved road. Upon gaining the correct number of signers, Mr. Clizbe then stated that the petitions would be turned over to the County Road Commissioners within the next week and, before next year Birmingham would be insured of the proper means of ingress and egress to her domains.

"The men whom I have asked to help in this work have more than responded," said Mr. Clizbe. "I might say that men from all stations of life are agreed on pushing anything that will add to the attractiveness of our fair Village."

County Drain to be put in.

Mr. Clizbe then outlined in brief a plan whereby part of Birmingham, at present sadly in need of better sewer outlets, would be benefited by having the County install a drain from Adams avenue at Lincoln avenue, running west to any ultimate source disposal seen fit by the County Drain Commissioner. This new drain would relieve that part of Birmingham bounded by Lincoln avenue on the south, Woodward avenue on the west, Adams avenue on the east and Maple avenue on the north.

It was Mr. Clizbe's contention that a petition for the installation of this sewer be started at once so that the County Drain Commissioner would make the necessary plans for carrying out the project early next summer.

Electors receive boquets.

A huge basket of roses was received by President Clizbe upon his arrival at the Village office Monday night. Miss Viola LaGrangi, who was elected Village Clerk, was also the recipent of a beautiful boquet. The floral offerings were sent by the "Clizbe for President" club.

FORD LOWERS PRICES ON CARS

News that brot smiles to the faces of Boughner Brothers, local authorized agents for the Ford automobile and tractor, arrived this week. Both "Charlie" and "Bill" are "tickled pink" over the prospect of future sales.

"We are authorized to now sell Ford products at 21 per cent less on small cars while the reduction of 14 per cent holds good on trucks and large cars," declared "Charlie" Boughner, Wednesday. "We have no doubt but what this news will be gladly received by scores of prospective buyers of Ford output. Mr. Ford believes that, since the war is long over, it is time to reduce his prices to an almost pre-war basis."

The Ford Company has made this great reduction in the face of the fact that they have 146,965 cars already ordered, including tractors. The Ford people will, necessarily, be heavy losers, since the material they will use was purchased at high prices. Mr. Ford announced that he was willing to make this sacrifice in order to bring business back to a going condition as soon as possible and to maintain the buying power of the country.—adv.

"SILENT POLICEMAN" COMES TO LIFE

George Kerwin of 308 Atkinson avenue, Detroit, was in such a hurry to reach Detroit at 3:30 o'clock Thursday morning that, being somewhat muddled up in his bearings, he that Maple was Woodward avenue—at least so he told Captain of Police Nicholas Mooney, who took him into custody, charged with reckless driving.

It all happened when George, who was driving east on West Maple avenue, forgot to turn south when he reached Woodward avenue. Heading straight across the four corners, Kerwin bent his front axle when he tried to run over the "silent policeman," with a cement foundation—recently installed there by Manager Bowman.

The "silent policeman" was moved a distance of 30 feet from its former anchorage by the impact of Kerwin's machine. Captain Mooney, who heard the crash, rushed to the scene and took Kerwin into custody.

After making a deposit of 25 for his appearance in Justice Lockrow's court Friday, Kerwin was allowed to go. He admitted, according to Captain Mooney, that he did have a "couple drinks" earlier in the evening.

BIRMINGHAM MASONIC CARNIVAL IN FUL L SWING

Following in the wake of the Shadukan Grotto band of Detroit and the three platoons of Pontiac Commandery No. 2, more than 2,500 local and nearby residents poured into the grounds Thursday night to partake of the merriment and prizes given away by the biggest thing that ever struck Birmingham—the Masonic Carnival.

Ideal weather conditions brot out a record-breaking number of persons to witness stunts outlined for the evening's program. A questioning of several of Birmingham's oldest residents showed that only once in the history of our fair Village had such a motley gathering of folks turned out for one event.

"Just once that I remember," stated John Heth, of Martin street, "that was on the 9th of April, when News had arrived that Lee had surrendered. Everyone for miles around came to Birmingham. We had street parades, campfires and a general display of "doings". Tonight's crowd, however, I believe have fairly eclipsed that night of long-ago.

Great interest was centered on the Dodge touring car to be given away on Saturday night. The photograph Thursday night was given to number 40426.

Friday and Saturday nights are expected to far surpass Thursday's offering in the way of crowds.

Following is a list of additional donors of gifts for the Carnival:

Dr. A. W. Newitt Resigns As Health Officer

Deep regret is felt among Village officials over the resignation of Dr. A. W. Newitt, appointed Village Health Officer last April, who leaves Birmingham next Monday to associate himself in hospital work with Dr. Jacob Burley, of Almont.

Dr. Newitt succeeded Dr. Raymale last April. Since his time of serving as Village Health officer many things for the betterment of Birmingham's health have been inaugurated and carried out by Dr. Newitt. The result is that, today, according to Village officials, Birmingham always was near perfect a condition of health as ever in her history.

Dr. Newitt has devoted much valuable time to cleaning up alleys and back-yards in Birmingham, as well as being the exponent for more efficient care of school children by the installation of a regular paid nurse in the schools.

Dr. Newitt will be associated with Dr Jacob in the latter's hospital in Almont, having general charge of the institution as well as the performing of operations there.

Mrs. Newitt and her son will remain in Birmingham for the present in their home on North Wodoward avenue.

"The Traffic Cops of the Bible."

The following lines were written and read by the Rev. Joseph Dutton in his morning sermon, Sept. 16th, when he preached on the subject "Traffic Cops of the Bible."

The Traffic Cop.

His signal says go and stop,
A mighty brain, the traffic cop,
All clad in khaki, white or blue,
He whistles, and the tide goes thru,
He lifts his hand, the world must wait;
He beckons, and the street is straight.
'Tis well to heed that traffic cop,
To watch his signal, go and stop.

If I should hurry for Belle Isle,
He orders me to wait a while,
The Judge then fines me ten or two,
It really makes me feel quite blue.
But, come to think, that traffic cop
Has right to tell me when to stop;
To make it safe for other men
He halts me every now and then.

That traffic cop has got a heart,
Although he orders, stop and start.
I catch a twinkle in his eye,
He winks at me as I go by.
He tells old folks the time of day,
He helps the blind man find his way,
All traffic seems to know
That chap who says to stop and go.

All life is like a great highway;
We motor on by night, by day;
By night the headlights flick, and flare;
By day the sun makes gleam, and glare;
'Tis well to watch the danger sign,
To slacken up the pace in time.
I think that friend who says, drive slow!
But when the way is clear, says go!

I think about that Master mind,
The Christ, the Friend of all man kind!
"Where cross the crowded ways of life"
He shares the peril and the strife;
He lifts his hand to guide my way,
He pilots me by night, by day;
No fears have I for fast or slow,
He tells me when to stop and go.

COUNTY FARM BUREAUS PROMOTE BETTER SEEDS

In every one of the 57 counties where a Farm Bureau exists there are plans under way for the formation of a Seed department, which will work under control with the seed department of the Michigan State Farm Bureau, according to latest reports from the State Bureau.

Twelve such departments has already been organized. They include the State Farm Bureau the code agent for purchasing field seed outside of the state.

This state-wide organization, buying its orders of seed and dealing direct with growers and large concerns of the country, demanding adequate guarantee as to purity and variety. Alfalfa growers of Idaho and South Dakota have contracted to sell direct to the Michigan State Farm Bureau much of the seed supplies next this year. Since this seed is northern grown, it is admirably adopted to Michigan soil. It is contended that this step will do away with the [illegible] brought into Michigan is certain to mean bigger and better crops.

EXPECT NEW WELL TO BE FINISHED WITHIN WEEK

With the arrival of a "fishing" part of the drilling equipment to be used in sinking the new well at the present water works station work will be completed on the well within the next week, according to Manager Eastman.

Following the completion of the drilling of this well and, in the event that sufficient water is found in Village limits, the connecting of the present pumps to this new station will be made, according to plans proposed by President W. D. Clizbe at the Commission meeting last Monday night.

It was originally planned to install an electrically driven pump to furnish water from this supply but, owing to the great cost of this, Village officials are planning to use the present pump instead.
