PERSONALS

One of the smart card parties of the closing season was that of last Saturday evening when Mr. and Mrs. Fred Fisher opened their home to 14 guests. The rooms of the Fisher home were exquisite in spring flowers, varied tulips being the most prominent blossom used for decorating. The evening was spent in bridge and at the close of the game, Mrs. Gordon was presented with the first prize for the ladies and Mr. Whalen, first for the men. Grand prizes were awarded Miss Addie Sly and Mr. Fisher. About 11:30 the hostess opened the doors of the dining room where a delicious supper was served with place cards for the following guests: Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Evans of south Woodward avenue; Dr. and Mrs. N. T. Shaw of south Woodward avenue; Mr. and Mrs. Frank Gordon of Southfield avenue; Mr. and Mrs. H. E. Whalen of Greenwood avenue; Mr. and Mrs. E. G. Hatch of Willets Street; Mr. and Mrs. P. L. Luscumb of west Maple avenue; the Misses Addie and Sadie Sly of north Woodward avenue, and Mr. and Mrs. Fisher. The club has enjoyed some delightful parties this winter meeting at the homes of the various members.

The final card party of the season for the local Chapter of the Eastern Star Order was given last Wednesday evening in the banquet hall. This was the 10th party this winter and closed a season of some very delightful evenings. Five hundred was played last week and, at the finish of the game, Mrs. Clarence Cummings was presented with a gold pencil for holding highest score among the women, and Mr. Dudley Jardine was given a silver pencil for highest score for the men. The hostesses for the evening were Mr. Hunsberger, Mrs. Peck and Mrs. Randall. The entertainment committee was made up of Mrs. Baily, Mrs. Rosso and Mrs. Betman. In the fall a new committee will be appointed for next winter.

The Ladies' Auxiliary of the Star Avenue United Presbyterian church will meet at the home of Mrs. Gieffe, Lawrence and Glendale avenues, Elmo Park, next Wednesday afternoon. This is to be an all day session and the women will spend the time sewing for the society.

The Women's Missionary Society of the United Presbyterian church will meet with Mrs. C. C. Hoffman, 207 Frank street, next Thursday afternoon at 2:30 o'clock.

The Young People's Society of the United Presbyterian church met at the home of Mrs. D. H. Curry this week. Following the business meeting the hostess served light refreshments to her guests and the remainder of the evening was spent in games and music.

Miss Jean Deer is able to return to her studies in school after being confined to her home for three weeks with chicken pox. She is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. George Deer of Park street.
