PERSONAL

H. G. Field and C. E. Doering returned to the village the latter part of last week, after a motor trip across the state, stopping at Pallisades Park on Lake Michigan. The trip covered 400 miles, and, according to Mr. Field, they found the roads throughout the state in excellent condition.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Hopson and son, Frederick, have started on a motor trip through the northern part of the state. They expect to be away about two weeks.

Following a stay of two weeks at Oscoda, Mich., Dr. and Mrs. Fred Crawford of East Maple avenue, have returned to their home. They arrived here last Saturday evening and report a delightful time and good weather nearly every day during their visit.

Village Manager W. H. Brown and family, formerly of Pontiac, are now making their home in Birmingham and are located at 755 South Woodward avenue. Mr. Brown stated this week that it has been his desire for some time to be located here, as he felt that he could better attend to his duties as Village Manager, but until the past week, had not found a suitable home that would answer the needs of his family. Mr. and Mrs. Brown have been residents of Pontiac for several years.

Lawrence Howe of Bates street, has returned home with his uncle, Sidney Tugh of Toronto, Canada, to be gone until about the second week in September. Mr. Tugh has been visiting in Birmingham at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Harvey Howe, for four weeks.

Last Sunday Mr. and Mrs. Carl Brown of Argus street, entertained a number of guests at their home, honoring Mrs. Tooley of Detroit, who leaves soon to become a missionary in Siberia. The guests were Rev. and Mrs. William Dunn and two daughters, Mildred and Julia; Mr. Scott and Mrs. Rhunion. The table was prettily appointed and the dinner was very daintily served with as many dishes as possible carrying out the color scheme. Following dinner the guests were entertained with a delightful musical program.

Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Heth motored to Cass City to spend a week with the latter's sister, Mrs. Homer Johnson, last week.

Mrs. Maurice Lowman and children, who have been in Indiana for the past five weeks with relatives, returned to Birmingham last week.

Miss Irene Schettler spent last week-end with Mrs. Henry Bright of Detroit.

Mr. and Mrs. Milton Valentine left for Chicago, Ill., last week to be gone several weeks. They will be the guests of relatives. They make their home on Purdy street.

After spending several weeks with Mr. and Mrs. Fred Hopson of Southfield, Mr. and Mrs. Wesley Gibbon and daughter, Jean, have returned to their home here on Merrill street.
