Social and Personal News

Last week Mr. and Mrs. Walter Ryan of Ravine Road, motored with Louis Rousseau, to Albion, Mich. From there they went to Lansing and spent several days, returning to their home here Friday evening.

Some improvement is reported in the condition of Miss Mabel Whittenberger of Purdy street, who has been confined to her home for several weeks, with an infection in her foot. She has been unable to be at her military store, but stated this week that the business was beautifully looked after during her absence by Miss Young.

While spending a few weeks in Detroit, with friends, Miss Ruby Majors of Washington, D. C., has been able to visit Mrs. Walter Ryan of Ravine Road. She was in Birmingham a few days of last week as Mrs. Ryan's guest.

Henry R. MacLennan, 101 Dames street, who has been suffering from injuries sustained last week Wednesday when he was attending to duties connected with his work with the Michigan State Telephone Co., has recovered and was able to return to work this week. Mr. MacLennan is from South Dakota, and is spending several months in this vicinity.

Miss Helen Faege, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Charles A. Faege, of Lodi-cale avenue, who has been seriously ill for over a month, has been receiving unusual attention from her many friends and acquaintances in and around the village. For the past few weeks Miss Faege has been in Harper hospital and during that time her room has been filled with flowers, tokens of friendship. She is reported to be much improved at present.

Mr. and Mrs. Glenn Begole of Detroit, moved to Birmingham this week, and are occupying the home of Mr. and Mrs. C. C. Field, 115 Oakland avenue, who have left for California to be gone about a year. Mr. and Mrs. Begole will keep the Field home until their return. Mr. Begole is managing the new dry goods store of Palmer & Begole, located on North Woodward avenue, in the First National Bank building.

Arriving last Sunday in the village, Miss Eleanor Van Dron of Caro, Mich., has been the guest of Miss Elice Boyne of Merrill street, for several days.

Upon leaving Birmingham last week, Miss Beulah King of East street, went to Lapeer, Mich., to be with her grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Valentine, for a week or two.

Walter Powell of Nashville, Tenn., who has been spending the summer with his sister, Mrs. Eugene Herr, left Birmingham Thursday for Chicago, Ill., where he has accepted a position. He will take up his new work soon.

Misses Marie and Dena Brown of Argon avenue, are spending two weeks of their vacation with friends at Fireside, Ohio.

Mrs. Leo Parisian, part owner of the new Arbor Hotel on South Wood ward avenue, announced this week that the success of the recent enterprise has been a triumph. "We realized when we went into the business that there was an urgent need for such a place in Birmingham," Mrs. Parisian explained, "but we are more than surprised to see the large number of persons who take advantage of our meals here. Last Sunday we served over 20 chicken dinners to some of the most prominent people in or around Birmingham."

Mr. and Mrs. William Miller spent last week-end at Union Lake, where they motored. They returned to their home here in Birmingham. After spending several months in Duluth, Mrs. Ada Palmer, mother of Mrs. H. Merritt of Pierce street, has returned to her daughter's home here, to spend a few months.

For the past week Miss Avis Gray, in 406 Merrill street, has had Miss Helen Frost of Howell, Mich., as her guest.

For the next two weeks Miss Margaret Young of South Woodward avenue, will visit relatives in Canada. The following men were in Birmingham for ten days, recently, guests at the Arbor Hotel. They were here in connection with the Federal Asphalt Co. The party consisted of E. E. Gray, R. Armstrong, C. Stewart and Fred Elwood of Hamilton, Ohio; Samuel Jones of Hillsdale, Mich.; Loren Whitman and Howard Wood of Wabash, Ind. They left Birmingham the latter part of last week.

Major and Mrs. R. B. Hewitt started last Monday evening for Chicago, Ill., where they will spend about three weeks. During that time they will visit their son, Carpenter, at Cavalry Military School. They will also attend the Pageant of Progress to be held at Chicago, in about ten days. Major Hewitt expects to visit Camp Grant, Rockford, Ill., where local boys are attending military training camp.

Mr. and Mrs. David Hagerman of Houston, Texas, are the guests of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Hagerman of North Woodward avenue, for a few days.

Mrs. Leicy Erwin, who has been confined to her home for some time with scarlet fever, has recovered and is spending the remainder of the summer months with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Louis Erwin, at Walnut Lake.

Returning this week from Camp Highland at Colby Lake, are Edward and LeRoy Erwin, Campbell and Ivan Erwin. They have been there about ten days, spending their vacation.

Miss Fardine Jones arrived last week from Chicago City to spend a week with Miss Goldie Gibbons of Argon avenue.

"Oh, how pretty your laundry looks!" "Yes, Mrs. Bowen, 343 Pierce St., did it. Let her try yours."

Mrs. Carl Grimm of Lansing, is in the village visiting several friends among them are Mrs. J. L. Hoople of Duane street, and Mrs. John Weirke at present is with her mother on George street.

The members of the Epworth League of the First Methodist church of this village are planning to motor to Warren, Mich., next Sunday evening, where they will attend the Epworth League of the Methodist church of that village. Some time within the near future, the Warren young people will visit Birmingham, a day. There are about 35 members in the local organization, and Eugene Staebler, president, is in charge of all arrangements for the trip.

ENGAGEMENTS

Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Bassett of Bloomington, announce the engagement of their daughter, Edna, to Mr. Isaac Breeding, Jr., son of Mr. and Mrs. Isaac Breeding, Sr. of Edinburg, Ind. The marriage will take place the 14th of September.

You Can Have A Good Office Position which pays you well and offers a good chance for advancement, if you will complete The Business Institute training.

"There is always room at the top," and there is always a place for the thoroughly trained young man or woman in business life.

The Business Institute is by far the largest business school in Michigan, and it is one of the leading schools of the kind in America. It has more well-qualified, capable teachers and a much larger equipment than any other business school in Detroit. It is the only business school in Detroit occupying an entire building. Those statements can be readily verified.

The remarkable success of The Business Institute is the result of modern courses of study, thorough instruction, and good positions secured for graduates. The success of The Business Institute is the direct result of the success of institute graduates.
