Quality Construction in all Sizes

NUMBER 10

Michelin small-size casings are made of the same high quality materials, in the same factories, by the same workmen as the larger sizes. Michelins are the big tires for small cars—big in dimensions and big in performance.

If you drive a Ford, Overland, Chevrolet, Maxwell, Dort, Briscoe, Bell, or other light car, you will find greater economy in the use of Michelin Tires. Come in and let us show you the extra value in Michelins.

PERSONALS

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Hallow and family of Appleton, Michigan, returned to Birmingham last Sunday from an extended visit to their home in the latter part of the fall.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles G. Walker and family, who recently sold their home on 4th street, are moving this week to the old Gray property, 622 South Woodward avenue.

Friends in the village of the late late persons entertained them at home for a part of last Sunday, following an all-day trip. They were the Mrs. W. E. Sander, and two daughters, Ruth and Marie of Flint, and Mrs. Mildred Walker of Three Rivers, Mich.

Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Taylor of West Main avenue, entertained Mrs. B. C. McKinley in Detroit, at their home. Mrs. McKinley is the sister of Mr. Taylor.

Mrs. Mabel Whitteberger, proprietor of a military camp on West Main avenue, has been unable to be in the shop for nearly two weeks on account of illness. She is reported to be some improved within the past few days.

Mr. and Mrs. Anthony Casiani, 622 Ann street, have moved to 111 Frank street this past week. They purchased the property from George Edwards.

This week only. Any size Red Tube, $3.00, 3 in. to 3 1/2 in. Guaranteed tube, Miller & Gibbons.

Charles Shain has recently put in new casings at the rear of his store. It consists of some of the best rubber written in years, and accounts for the number of sales, it is being to prove very popular with the booklovers here who find it difficult to get to Pontiac and Detroit every new book they want to purchase. He has put in the Grosset and Dunlap books and announced this week that, although the assortment is small to start with, he intended to increase it as the demand became known. Among the stock that he already has may be found the Haily and Lee books for boys and girls, and a good selection for the grown-ups.

Miss Fidelity, Mrs. Anna Hall, 518 1/2 street, lost her footing when she was in a flight of stairs in her home and in falling broke her right arm. Although she continues to suffer from the injury physicians say that it is not as serious as was thought at the start, and care for about six weeks will insure it to its normal condition.

Six weeks ago Mrs. Belle Gault of South Woodward avenue, was injured in an accident and sustained a broken arm from which she has been suffering since. It was reported this week that she was rapidly recovering and will soon be able to remove the bandages.

John Wheat, who has been in Mr. Creners for several weeks in the village last week visiting his parents, Mr. and Mrs. George Edwards, who he made their home at 114 Frank street for the past two years, have moved to their summer home at Unga Lake. They will remain there until spring when they expect to hold in the village.

Mr. and Mrs. Peter Mackay of Toledo, where they were married, returned to Birmingham last week. Mrs. Mackay has returned for the Sunday school services at the First Baptist church.

Over last Sunday Mrs. Roy Brown of Greenville, was entertained by the Misses Margaret Dinton and Dorothy Lee, both of Ann Arbor, Mich.

This week only. Any size Red Tube, $3.00, 3 in. to 3 1/2 in. Guaranteed tube, Miller & Gibbons.

Helen Fagg, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Charles A. Fagg of Ridgeland, Mich., is here this week with relatives and friends. She will later make several visits to Birmingham in so to Detroit where she will spend a part of the week.

Mr. and Mrs. Harvey Hall have returned from a visit of several days at Memphis, Mich., and are now entertaining Fred Young of Toronto, who is a brother of Mrs. Hall.

At their home on North Woodward avenue, Mr. and Mrs. Otis C. Friend have been entertaining Mrs. George Friend of Lima, Ohio, this week.

This week only. Any size Red Tube, $3.00, 3 in. to 3 1/2 in. Guaranteed tube, Miller & Gibbons.

Mrs. Erwin Wheat and children of Cherry street, have gone to Gloversville, N. Y., to remain until late fall with her mother, Mrs. Green.

Mrs. C. R. Woodworth of Owosso, few days with relatives. Mrs. Woodworth is here this week with relatives and friends. She will later make several visits to Birmingham in so to Detroit where she will spend a part of the week.
