THE NEW YEAR

Fear, fucing the New Year, Saith, "What shall it bring?" And is dumb, Dreading the hidden ways. Faith, looking upward, saith, "Good is in everything, Let it come. God ordereth the days."

i ordereth the days.

Is is our New Year's bits is mine, and I am His, the ways, all the days ead us home.

Us pray, let us praise. home. ay, let us ngalse. —MaYk Guy Pearse.

The Wassail Bowl

The wassail bowl has a past, Not adoubtful one, either Historians say, it is a direct descendant of the grace op of the Greeks and Romans, and that at one time it was 'given first place at the New Year celebrations of the most repowned political, eichestatical and civil orange to some good resolution."

"My good man, I hope you've made place at the New Year celebrations of the most repowned political, eichestatical and civil orange to more pood resolution."

"No, ma'am, not dis year. You see the celebration of the most repowned political, eichestatical and civil orange to man and civil orange to man a severe storm various cointries. Wassail was of more than one either either of the family personal past of the family personal to the contribution of the most repowned political, eichestatical and civil orange to the past a buch of 'uni made last year or hardward effect was evidenced with the tracelytic of this dispatch." Yesterday afterinon a severe storm to without effect was evidenced with the contribution of the most repowned political, eiche most repowned political, eiche most personal past of the first personal that a contribution of the most repowned political, eiche most repowned political, eiche most personal past perso
