STARTS WINTER CLASSES IN BALLROOM DANCING

Young Children Are Given the Opportunity To Learn the Terpsichorean Art

Classes in ball room dancing started in the studio of Miss Weick in the Ford Building, when Miss Georgia Hoyt of Pontiac, opened her school for the winter season here. Miss Hoyt will conduct classes for children from four years to fourteen years. She will teach every Thursday afternoon for the present but expects to establish evening classes within a few weeks.

For several years Miss Hoyt has been well known in Pontiac and Detroit. She has been an established instructor in dancing at Pontiac during that time and has been able to furnish some excellent talent for various theatrical affairs. She directed all of the dancers who appeared at the Wm. Ives last summer, in Bloomingfield Hills. She has been urged for some time to come to Birmingham and open that she could offer the best instruction as there was no hall in Birmingham which would be suitable for the purpose.

YOUNG HUNTER, PERFORATED WITH SHOT IS RECOVERED

Too Many Sportsmen In One Game Preserve Led To Accidental Shooting

Warren Ross, 4 local high school boy who was recently accidentally shot while hunting with a group of class mates, is much improved and is able to be up and around. Ross received 39 buck shot and was thought for a while to be in a serious condition.

The shot was not removed, but will be taken from his lungs, where they are lodged, one at a time, according to the attending physician. Ross will not be able to return to school for some time, but is believed to be out of danger.

The circumstances of the accident are not known, but it is thought that too many hunters was the cause.
