

CONDENSED CLASSICS

UNCLE TOM'S CABIN

HARRIET BECHER STOWE
Condensation by John Kendrick Bangs

IT WAS in the days when African slavery flourished under the free skies of America...

Tom's fidelity to his master was so strong, and fearful to involve him in further difficulties he bravely faced the miseries of a life of stripes...

Tom's strange dexterity in the making of strange toys drew to the hearts of children, clung to him as to an old and beloved friend...

Tom's life had been a life of sorrow, but Tom found relief from sorrow in the companionship of a fellow-passenger...
