"THOSE DEVILS"

Remains in December, 1918, four men gathered in a hotel in Boston...

CHAPTER I—Continued.

"Admitting the success," he remarked. "Pretty things, aren't they? I couldn't speak a word. I just put them back on the table..."

"All the time he was staring at me, all the time he was staring at me, all the time he was staring at me..."

"He's got to go," said Lakington. "He's dangerous." "And then my father got up and closed the door. I heard him going for half an hour..."

"Admiring My Treasures?" He remarked. "Pretty Things, Aren't They?"

While temporarily insane. The same evening shortly after the first time in his life, went to bed the worse for it...

"THOSE DEVILS"

Drummond did not answer immediately. "He came to the Elms..."

CHAPTER II.

In Which He Journeys to Godalming and the Game Begins. "I almost think, James, that I could go with another kidnap..."

"You're going for long, sir?" "I don't know for sure. It depends on circumstances. It which, when you come to think of it..."

"You'd do old bulldog," laughed Drummond. "You know you're itching to get out at all costs..."

"Will it take long, sir, do you think?" "To get it settled?" Drummond lit a cigarette and leaned back in his chair...

"There are more things in heaven and earth, young man, than can be counted by our senses and our reason..."

"THOSE DEVILS"

"Whisky, I think, James." Hugh carefully folded the sheet of paper and hid it in his pocket...

CHAPTER II.

"Very good, sir. I will clean your coat revolver at once." "Hugh Drummond was in the act of lighting his pipe..."

"And see if you can find that Water-Squirr Pistol I used to Have—Son of a Gun, They Called It—A Piece of a Gun, They Called It..."

"The 20-h.p. two-wheeler made short work of the run to Godalming. Drummond thought of the top, gone rolled up carefully in his palms..."

"What a sight long he stared at the returning girl he saw now a man, over and over again..."

"The girl was still seated in the back seat of the passenger car. They were standing in the road apparently watching the chauffeur..."

"THOSE DEVILS"

"I'm not sure, but I think I'm engaged. I don't mind if you do—because you won't go long."

CHAPTER II.

"I don't know for sure. It depends on circumstances. It which, when you come to think of it..."

DEMAND FOR TANLAC BREAKS ALL RECORDS

Amazing Success Achieved by Celebrated Medicine Not Only Phenomenal, But Unprecedented—Over 20,000,000 Bottles Sold in Six Years—Foreign Countries Clamor for It.

Never before, perhaps, in the history of the drug trade has a wonderful record that is now being made by Tanlac, the celebrated medicine which has been...

The first bottle of Tanlac to reach the public was sold just a little over six years ago. Its success was nationwide and people everywhere were...

Restored to Health. Still others, who seemed fairly well, yet who suffered with indigestion, headaches, shortness of breath, dizziness, sour, gassy stomachs, coated tongues, fullness of breath, constipation, had complexion, loss of appetite, nervousness at night and of terribly depressed feelings, expressed that they have been entirely relieved of these distressing symptoms and restored to health and happiness by the use of Tanlac.

After Him. One of the members of a negro church in Alabama was talking to the minister one day of the temptations Satan placed in one's path, when the pastor grunted impatiently and replied: "Folks make me tired representin' Satan as ruinin' after dem with you. The truth is, my friend, there is so many people pullin' at de devil's coat tails dat he ain't got much time to chase anybody."

With a Little Help. May—Toll me, Pearl, how Mr. Timmerman ever plucked up enough courage to propose. He is so dreadfully bashful.

Youth's Criticism. Undoubtedly, when one is fourteen one's mind reaches conclusions unclouded by the opinions of the world at large. To an adult friend the small boy divulged the interesting information that he had read Lewis' "The Dolls' House."

What Happens to 'Em. An observant Boston matron was speaking in condemnation of the flirt who had a young girl for her acquilance.

Why It Works. "What is meant by senatorial courtesy? Listen to my speeches if you'll listen to mine!"—Louisville Courier-Journal.

Evidence. "I never knew until today how smart a fellow George is!" "Why, how do you know?" "He told me so himself!"—Trenton News.

Built in the Hungry Daze. "What makes the tower of Pisa lean?" "It was built during a famine." "One can't always lean 'sweet-tempered' and intelligent, too."

Feed the body well. Right food for the body is more important than right fuel for the engine. Grape-Nuts is a scientific food containing all the nutriment of wheat and malted barley. Grape-Nuts digests easily and quickly, builds toward health and strength — and is delightful in flavor and crispness.

Sure Relief. BELLANS INDIGESTION. 6 BELLANS Hot Water Sure Relief. BELLANS FOR INDIGESTION.

HINDU IDEA OF "SEVEN SEAS". The Hindu idea of the seven seas is a very old and interesting one. It is based on the belief that the world is surrounded by seven seas, each of which is named after a different part of the world.

Most Intelligent Animal. Scientists say that the chimpanzee is superior to any other animal except man. Next in order comes the gorilla, then the orang-utan, the gibbon, still another variety of monkey, and lastly the baboon.

Two Views of It. Romantic Fable—Some still maintain they can see people suffering on this beach at night. Little Boy's Story—A young girl named Grandama said it's disgusting.—London Mail.

Word "Negro" a Common Noun. The word "negro," used to distinguish a black man from a white man, has long been a common noun and is not capitalized. The words "Fole, Mexican, Russian," etc. are proper nouns designating the race or nationalities from which white men are descended.

Antients Knew of Compressed Air. The principle of compressed air was known to the ancients. It was first experimented with by Hero, who lived from 284 to 212 B. C. The compressed air pump was invented by Otto von Guericke of Magdeburg, in 1654.
