

MONEY IS THE BACKBONE OF PROSPERITY

On money and credits rests the responsibility for that prosperity today which alone means satisfactory working conditions, profitable employment, for all.

It is highly important that you keep your funds wisely in circulation as the basis for credits necessary to this prosperity.

Every dollar deposited in this Bank is the basis for such credit.

through its Commission, had violated a State law in ordering the steel tank by first employing a registered engineer and then submitting the plans to the State department.

A summary of the meeting would tend to the thought that, although a number of these points were included in the opinion of a more expensive project, most of them were of the opinion that the Village Commission was doing all in its power to give Birmingham an extra water supply for the coming month.

MISS LELAND HOSTESS AT EVENING DINNER

One of the most charming evening dinners in several weeks was that of last Wednesday evening when Miss Leland of Vinewood avenue was hostess to a few of her high school teachers at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Thad Leland.

Miss Leland made a most attractive hostess. The party center piece and occasional aids placed artistically about the white linen helped much in giving a pleasing effect.

PERSONAL Announcement has been made of the death of Miss Wilhelmine Becker of Los Angeles, Cal., and Ralph C. Arnold of Detroit, May 31.

OUR CORRESPONDENT'S LETTER

But we soon got over that. We have a building of our own, and each one has a separate room for the bed, table, chairs, and bed linen, furnished by the board of health. We are taught to keep our rooms in a healthy and sanitary condition, while the girls learn how to sew their dresses, trousseau, knits and other home work.

Reading the paper, the girls are taught in the first, second, and fifth grades are as follows: Reading, writing, spelling, arithmetic, grammar and history. We also have movies once a week. Baseball, tennis, billiards, card and checker games are the leading sports of the day, while at the evening we carry on our regular devotional services.

W. F. ADAMS. CARD OF THANKS I wish to extend my heartfelt thanks to all those who so lovingly and thoughtfully assisted in the sickness and death of my dear husband and extended their sympathy to me throughout, and especially do I want to thank the Masses for their kind and loving attention, also the clergyman for carrying out my wishes in regard to the service.
