LANSING GIRLS ENTERTAIN

A delightful week-end and holiday party was brought to a sad close late Monday evening when Miss Elsie Cobb, who is attending school at Lansing, received word of the death of her grandfather, Mr. Houston, a resident of this village for many years. Several Birmingham girls received invitations in the middle of last week to enjoy a few days at the close of the week at Lansing with students there who are local residents. Some of the invitations were accepted and Miss Kathleen Van Zandt of Dewey street, Miss Helen Walker of Ann Street, and Miss Esther Smith of Brown street, left Saturday for that city and were graciously entertained while there.

Miss Van Zandt was the guest of Miss Nellie Brennan, and Miss Smith, the guest of her brother, Leigh, and Miss Alice Voorhees. The party was met at the train and rushed to a dance. From that moment on they were kept busy every minute doing enjoyable things, including boating trips, dinners, dances and picnics. Miss Van Zandt remained at the home of Mrs. Walker, the Misses Walker and Smith returned with Miss Cobb Monday evening.

1921 TEAM ENTERTAINED

Unique in every detail were the decorations last week when the girls of the 1921 basket ball team were entertained at the home of Miss Norma Clark of west Maple avenue, by Mrs. Clark, Mrs. Parks and Mrs. Rosso. The girls arrived Mr. 9:30 and enjoyed a musical program until dinner was announced at 6 o'clock. The dining room was unusually attractive. Above the table was suspended a large red basketball with a 1921 emblem in white adorning one side. The color scheme being red and white, was carried out in the remainder of the room. The table and chairs were strewn with the charming bowl of snowballs and deep red tulips used as a center piece. The place cards followed the following: Misses Harriet Wilson, Meri Parks, Helen Rosso, Thelma McQuarrie, Henna Reynolds, Florence McKinney and Norma Clark, who belong to the regular team and Misses Helen Dutton, who are the substitutes.

Mr. and Mrs. Vernon Watkins have gone to Bos Blanc island to remain until late fall. For a number of summers the parties there have been held for Mr. Watkins, who is the owner of them. There are several hundred homes and during the summer months they are rented by the hour to daily visitors.

Mr. and Mrs. T. C. Houghtaling and Mr. and Mrs. S. H. Wilkinson motored to Vernon, Mich., last Sunday. Mr. and Mrs. Wilkinson remained until Monday evening.
