

One of the Highest of Bridges and its Guardian

This photograph shows a passenger train passing over one of the highest bridges in the world... the Southern Pacific railway bridge over the Pecos river in Texas.

The American Legion

By the American Legion, supplied by the American Legion, State Division 100

POOR LEAD TO OBTAIN SPLIT

Attempt to Arouse Indignation Over "Horror on the Rhine" Proves Dismal Failure.

The Germanophile attempt to arouse American indignation over the horror on the Rhine... failed to obtain a split in the Legion.

The truth is merely that the Germanophile attempt to arouse indignation over the horror on the Rhine... failed to obtain a split in the Legion.

Von Mohr has proved himself a poor servant of his country... he is a poor American for having tried to win America to the point of view of the unprincipled man who deflected her.

POST WINS ON GOLDEN CALF. Two-Headed Animal Aids in Raising Organization's Funds From $100 to $1,500.

The Golden Calf of the Twentieth Century has been discovered by the American Legion post at Fredericksburg, Va.

SMALLEST OF MEXICANS. Daniel and Virginia, the smallest infants in Mexico, are expected to visit this country soon.

Two-Headed "Cat" That Hit Virginia Post on Road to Hut. It was found that all this for doing nothing but standing still and doing nothing.

Legionism Among the Miners. The activity of the American Legion in the mining districts of southeastern Colorado is becoming more and more active.

Why Franklin's Wastings Live. For the time being, there are no other Englishmen there.

China's Great Variety of Trees. China has a greater variety of trees than the whole of North America.

Clean Shave by Lightning Stroke. A warning to American Legion post officers against using the electric shaver.

CONDENSED CLASSICS

LITTLE DORRIT

By CHARLES DICKENS

Condensation by Charles E. L. Wingate

"AFFERY, what girl was that in my mother's room just now?"

"She? Little Dorrit? She's nothing, she's a wim of hers."

"He had asked her pale, transparent face... he had looked at her with a beautiful fire."

"He had asked her pale, transparent face... he had looked at her with a beautiful fire."

"He had asked her pale, transparent face... he had looked at her with a beautiful fire."

"He had asked her pale, transparent face... he had looked at her with a beautiful fire."

"He had asked her pale, transparent face... he had looked at her with a beautiful fire."

"He had asked her pale, transparent face... he had looked at her with a beautiful fire."

"He had asked her pale, transparent face... he had looked at her with a beautiful fire."

"He had asked her pale, transparent face... he had looked at her with a beautiful fire."

"He had asked her pale, transparent face... he had looked at her with a beautiful fire."

"He had asked her pale, transparent face... he had looked at her with a beautiful fire."

"He had asked her pale, transparent face... he had looked at her with a beautiful fire."

"He had asked her pale, transparent face... he had looked at her with a beautiful fire."

was led to invest his firm's money in the famous Mrs. Merdle's scheme.

And thus the bubble broke. Merdle committed suicide, and the Durtil money was gone.

The days dragged wearily on. At last Arthur, despondent and crushed, lay down on his bed.

The clock began to break. And strange to say it is a rascally adventurer, Bledsoe, a nondescript but not unimportant man.

Richard visited the strange old lady. Learning of her, he stood on two legs of his staff and his left elbow.

She had married, after Mr. Clemp's marriage to her, for a marriage sanctioned by his overbearing uncle.

Instantly Richard, seeking to blackmail the old lady, declared he had deposited with the prison Little Amy Dorrit, then at the prison with Arthur.

"I forgot you freely," cried the generous girl. "I forgot you freely," cried the generous girl.

"You can say (if you don't mind) 'I am your friend'." declared Little Dorrit.

From Coal Gas. An English engineer, Ernest Bury, claims that he has succeeded in extracting ethylene alcohol from coal-gas.

Ancient Iron Crucible. There is in North America a crucible which was placed there in the year 1500.

Patching Wall Paper. To patch gouges made in the wall by sharp-cornered furniture.

Mayflower Relic for Peace Portal

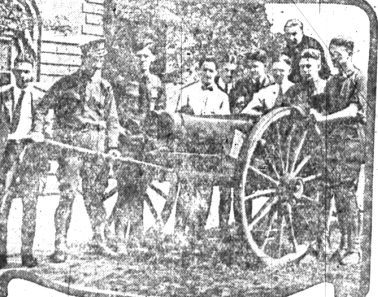

Frank Terrace of Seattle a famous good roads advocate, has arrived in Seattle from England, bringing a battered old chest of hand lumber.

The Japanese policeman, even on the lookout for Korean miscreants, keeps every member of this particular Korean family listed and known.

Daniel and Virginia, the smallest infants in Mexico, are expected to visit this country soon.

Georgia University's Unique Cannon

Whenever the boys of the University of Georgia win a victory in sports, they celebrate by firing this old two-barrelled cannon.

Women's clubs are practically nonexistent in Mexico. In England women are now engaged in every branch of pharmaceutical science.

London policeman is not permitted to marry without the approval of his superior. Algeria, France's most important province, has a greater area than the mother country.

FOR IMPROVED SPEECH

Miss Suzanne Perkins is president of the National Association for the Improvement of Speech.

Two-Headed "Cat" That Hit Virginia Post on Road to Hut. It was found that all this for doing nothing but standing still and doing nothing.

Legionism Among the Miners. The activity of the American Legion in the mining districts of southeastern Colorado is becoming more and more active.

Why Franklin's Wastings Live. For the time being, there are no other Englishmen there.

China's Great Variety of Trees. China has a greater variety of trees than the whole of North America.

Clean Shave by Lightning Stroke. A warning to American Legion post officers against using the electric shaver.

Drains Live on Politics. A warning to American Legion post officers against using the electric shaver.

THE STORY OF OUR STATES

By JONATHAN BRACE

By Jonathan Brace

By Jonathan Brace

RHODE ISLAND

RHODE ISLAND. Rhode Island was the name of this state. As can be seen from the state seal, the official name is the State of Rhode Island and Providence Plantations.

The derivation of the name Vermont comes from the French "vert" or green mountains.

Probably the first white man to see the rocky landmarks was a man named John Smith.

The first permanent settlement was in 1724 at Brattleboro, where the Massachusetts colony established a fort.

In size Vermont has 9,654 square miles, an impressive derivation from the name of this state.

England was the first to prohibit slavery in 1789.

England was the first to prohibit slavery in 1789.

England was the first to prohibit slavery in 1789.

England was the first to prohibit slavery in 1789.

England was the first to prohibit slavery in 1789.

England was the first to prohibit slavery in 1789.