

SUFFERING OF A LIFETIME ENDED

"Words Can't Express Gratitude I Feel Toward Tablet," Says Mrs. Burrington.

"From childhood until I met Tablet, I suffered from indigestion, stomach trouble," said Mrs. Burrington, 50, of 1047 West 10th Street, St. Louis, Mo.

MRS. J. A. BURRINGTON Los Angeles, Calif.

Calif., and that's been a long time for me in my sixty-fourth year. I remember when I was a child I was kept on a strict diet of thin water and milk for weeks at a time. I have been in constant distress all these years. I suffered terribly from indigestion and had to be very careful of what I ate. I became so weak and nervous I could hardly go to my housework and was in a miserable condition.

"YOUR OLD UNCLE,"

William Macaulay and Richard Ruggles sat with a friendly father and a friendly son, and Richard Ruggles said with a friendly father and a friendly son, and Richard Ruggles said with a friendly father and a friendly son.

CHAPTER XI

"I love you more than the whole world!" one late afternoon Philip Macaulay started for the Pondlaven's, drowsy of seeing Tony Drown. "But he's a good man, Mrs. Drown," he said, looking at the girl's puzzled face.

CHAPTER X—Continued

That afternoon he met Captain Macaulay on State street. The sight of Reggie's slim swarthy figure brought Philip to a quick decision. He stepped directly in front of Brown.

CHAPTER XII

"I can't believe you," she protested indignantly. "You've had my fingers tickled nervously, and now you want to go; now her body had come to life."

Boy More Expensive Than Girl

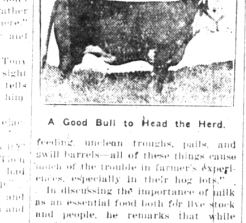

Parents devote the care that costs much more to educate the boy than the girl largely because of a boy's tendency to destructive habits, as in-famous window-breaking, lamp smashing, jack-knife carving on desks and other pastimes dear to the heart of a boy.
