BONSTELLE COMPANY AT THE GARRICK THEATER

"Bab," the Edward Childs Carpenter play, taken from the novel of Mary Robert Rhinehart, will be the offering of the Bonstelle Company for the second week. The play belongs to group of unusual plays and will be distinctly remembered through the work of Miss Helen Hayes.

In offering "Bab" Miss Bonstelle is carrying out the policy of giving the individual members of the Bonstelle organization an opportunity. Miss Sylvia Field will be seen in the Helen Hayes role and at an early date will be given oppostunity to demonstrate her ability.

The play was originally produced under the direction of George Tyler and is in four acts. The usual popular Tuesday, Thursday and Saturday matinees will be given. Each play will open Monday and close on Sunday night.

BILL FARNUM A CHAMPION "ARRANGER"

William Farnum, the Fox star, who will be seen at the Ferndale Theater during the coming week in his latest western thriller, "Drag Harlan," from the pen of Charles Alden Seltzer, takes his hat off to nobody in the business when it comes to the gentle art of making arrangements, according to members of his company.

Being a star, of course, Farnum always gets a part where he dominates everything and everybody. In "Drag Harlan" he started in early to get his arranging done. He arranged for the filming of a typical western picture, desert and everything on Catalina island off the California coast, one of the garden spots of the world. This was the first time a "western" type of picture was filmed there, and will probably be the last.

The real reason back of Farnum's wish to go to Catalina to picture sage brush, cactus, cattle outlaws and wild "broncho" was that he might go fishing whenever he wasn't working; for Farnum surely likes to fish. And the fish, so the story goes, just dote on having him catch them, and will jump at any kind of a hook Bill throws to them—so much so that J. Gordon Edwards, the director of "Drag Harlan", declares that even fish have their favorite motion picture stars, and, moreover, show exceedingly good taste.

HOME TEAM WINS HONORS; FRIDAY'S SCORE 18-2

Last Friday's game between the local team and the team from Mt. Clemens, Mich., resulted in a complete rout for the latter. Birmingham won by a score of 18-2.

During the early innings the teams appeared to be evenly matched. In the fourth inning, however, the Birmingham boys solved the Mt. Clemens pitcher for several hits, which resulted in a number of runs. This "slug-fest" which started in the fourth continued every time the locals were at bat. In addition to this the Mt. Clemens pitcher was very liberal with his passes, which caused, either directly or indirectly, in several runs being scored.

Baynes pitched a very good article of ball, holding his opponents to three scattered hits. The support given him was all that could be asked, especially that of his battery mate, Victor Peck, who did very good work at the bat. Many of the faults which were so noticeable in the Rochester game have disappeared. The play of the team as a whole has improved considerably and they should give opponents in future games a very good argument.

The team goes to Monroe today to play the high school team of that city.

AN OIL OASIS ON WHEELS

There is that saying that Great Britain's flag never sees the sun set—which, according to O. F. Beier, local resident, should also apply to the Standard Oil Co.

Last week, while returning from a trip to Port Huron, and while between Richmond and Romeo, Mr. Beier "ran out of gas." He stopped at a farmhouse and found that the farmer had about a gallon of the needed liquid in his "flivver." The farmer forthwith offered Mr. Beier half of it. This half gallon would be enough to get back to Richmond, but not enough to go to Romeo, where Mr. Beier could replenish his tank.

Just then, down the road came a familiar vehicle—within a few minutes Mr. Beier had filled his tank completely—and the Standard Oil Co. had added a few more nickels to John D.'s income tax report.

Mr. and Mrs. D. C. Foreman of Park street, have moved to their new home on Wallace street.
