PERSONALS

Miss Harriet Wilson, physical training instructor in the Birmingham schools, will chairperson a group of Camp Fire Girls at a summer camp really starting some time in August. The movie even at the high school last Monday evening helped to supply funds for this camp. During the last winter the girls of this group, known as the "Pos-u-fenis Camp Fire Girls" sold $250 worth of candy to local residents and at the present time have enough to hold a who are members. Plans are being made to keep a fresh air patient from Detroit at the camp during that time and meet all expenses in connection. The girls will be instructed in cooking, swimming, riding and many other lines by Miss Wilson, who has been their leader since the girls organized about a year ago. The members of the organization are Margaret Rainey, Helen Clark, Hazel Green, Helen Moore, Altie Clark, Grace Homstedt, Margaret Standart, Charlotte Whalen, Mary Lammart and Lena Goyles. Camp will be held on the St. Clair River between Mr. Clemen and Port Huron, Mich.

The Cemetery Association of Franklin, Mich., met last Thursday with Mrs. E. C. Bristol at her home for the regular monthly meeting. The session was marked by the presence of Mr. Griesbeck of Pontiac, who talked for twenty minutes concerning the conditions in China. Later in the afternoon Mr. Griesbeck sold stamps to the women present, to help the funds to be sent to China soon from America. The next meeting of the association will be held at the home of Miss Adeline Sly of west Maple road. This gathering will take place in June. In the meantime the members of the society and their families are planning to go to the cemetery in a body to clean and rake the grounds. At noon those present will be served lunch by Miss Sly. Each family will bring sandwiches. During the day trees will be trimmed, grass cut and raked, roadways scraped and cleaned and plants and shrubs watered for. It is expected that there will be about 200 workers.

Luther D. Allen, supervisor of Bloomfield township, accompanied by Mrs. Allen, met at the home of his son, Howard, superintendent of public schools at Winchester, Ind., last week, returning to his home on Long Lake road Tuesday of this week. Mr. and Mrs. Allen brought back their granddaughter, who is three years old, to remain with them over the summer. Supervisor Allen said: "The more I travel over the roads of other states, the more I think of the splendid job done on Oakland county roads by our efficient commissioners—we certainly have the best roads in the country."

"GINGHAM" DANCING PARTY
Last Tuesday evening a group of young married people gathered at the Johnson-Shaw Hall on south Woodland avenue, and enjoyed one of the most pleasant parties of the winter. The girls were dressed in engham and the decorations were carried out in engham, making the affair what is called a "gingham party."

Musical dancing was furnished by an orchestra from Detroit. The party consisted of the members of a recently organized club and their friends. The regular members were Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Bertrau, Mr. and Mrs. Lawrence Wendell, Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Cummings, Mr. and Mrs. Hal Schiback, Mr. and Mrs. Roy Montgomery, Mr. and Mrs. Walter Fingle, Miss Martha Nye and David Davidson. Mr. Cummings had charge of the decorations for the party last Tuesday.

OUR CORRESPONDENT'S LETTER

walk. Shade is important and they conserve all there is. All of the really fine trees have been imported. On referring to my notes, I find that I am getting in arrears with my story of my stay here, so I will try to catch up. On March 1 Mr. Blackmore and I had lunch with Mr. (Judge) Lindsey at the University Club, and heard a very interesting talk by a gentleman from California, on good roads, which is a very important matter here, where good roads are so necessary and so expensive. The club house would be a credit to any large city in the States and has a large membership. In passing this subject, I might say that Mrs. Lindsey was an old sweetheart of Mr. Blackmore's. On March 2nd, we visited the Capitol building and saw the Senate and House of Representatives in session. We were shown over the building by Senator Lucas, who is a Shriner whom we had met at the Commercial Club a number of times. This building was formerly the Palace of the Kings before they were dethroned, and tricked out of their birthright. While we were in the Senate someone passed a basket of mountain apples, which are not apples at all, and we had the pleasure of feeding one of the ladies, which we ever ate. It is not the season for them, so the treat was all the more enjoyable. After our visit in the Capitol, we visited the building where the archives are kept, and had the privilege of seeing, among other things, a copy of the first English newspaper published west of the Rocky Mountains, Volume one; Number one. This paper was published from July 30th, 1836, to some time in 1840. On Sunday, March 10th, we walked up the Pali; four miles in two hours. This is not very fast time, but when I tell you that it was uphill, I am quite proud of our ability as walkers. We had a very different view of the country than we had when we visited the same place in our auto. There is a bronze tablet placed there by the Hawaiians, which contains the inscription, which reads as follows: Erected by the Daughters of Hawaii to commemorate the Battle of Nuuanu, fought in this valley in 1795, when the invading conqueror Kamehameha I. drove the forces of Kalanikupule King of Oahu, to the Pali, and from the precipice, thus establishing the Kamehameha Dynasty." The view from this point will be remembered by me as long as life shall last. They sprinkle the streets here quite often; not so much to lay the dust, but to make it a little cooler, I should think.
With kindest regards to all,
Aloha,
W. F. ADAMS.

The Ladies' Aid Society of the Franklin Methodist Episcopal Church met Thursday at the home of Miss Adeline Sly for the regular monthly gathering. This affair was in the form of a birthday party. Each member put pennies in a bag corresponding to the number of years of her life. The sum will be added to the general fund of the society. At 6 o'clock supper was served to the members and their families and many of their friends. The rooms of the Sly home were filled and the proceeds from the supper amounted to a large amount which will be devoted to the work of the organization.
