Boys Together, John Burroughs and Jay Gould Were as Wide Apart as the Poles.

One poignant recollection John Burroughs had of Jay Gould as boy and man, he spoke of in this way: "I was large and strong while Jay was small and slippery. A boy taught us to wrestle but Jay would break his hold and slip out on top. I would say, 'Jay, that isn't fair,' but the boy would only laugh. Not wanting to be thrown, he fought to throw me and because I was indignant, would wrestle with no one else. He went away to an academy and when he returned his father had sold his land and bought a village in New York. Jay got in with a man and made maps. By and by he left that part of the country and our lives being no longer parallel, I never spoke to him after that although I saw him twice."

"One day while I was despatch of a yacht at the national residence of Washington I heard a familiar voice looking up from my seat. I saw Jay Gould, dark and thin and full as ever, and even then one of the great men in the United States. He had a beard he served me and I had nothing to say to him."

Find an Ancient Temple. Greek archaeologists have unearthed an imposing temple at Herakleion, the structure is in an excellent state of preservation and is stated to be as large as the temple of Jupiter at Olympia.

The bronze inscriptions establish the date at 400 B. C. Numerous tablets also have been found bearing indications of laws of ancient civilization. This is the second temple which has been discovered within a month of the first having been found near the city of Alys. The work is continuing.

Steady Stream. A Brazil, living in New York has invented a machine to cast prison bars at the rate of 1000 in 200000 ft. by utilizing motion into late shape by centrifugal force.

Modesty keeps some people from telling the naked truth.
