"WAY DOWN EAST" The greatest and latest story of that region of the nation picture act. Directed by Wm. Griffith, will be shown in the production of "Way Down East" at the Shubert-Detroit Opera House, Detroit, during limited engagements only beginning Sunday night, May 29th. Following the initial presentation each day for the duration of the engagement. Matinees at 2:15 and the night showings at 8:15. This unique motion picture spectacle, with its unique drama interest amid rural and city scenes and covering the four seasons of the year, culminated in a terrifying cave blizzard and climaxed with a graphic breaking up of the ice in the river bearing one away from the frozen state with hero reaching home at the brink of a great waterfall in 45 minutes. Most amazing thing that this producer has ever attempted. A large amphibious orchard brought direct from New York City will furnish the elaborate scenic arrangement that goes with the showings. Mail orders of out-of-town patrons will be handled with precision and promptness. These orders will be filled promptly and in order of their receipt. The price (including car tax) will be $10, $15, $20 (including car tax) for matinees and Saturday matinees. There will be matinees every day at which the price will be 25c, 35c, $1.10 and box seats $1.50.
