PERSONAL
 Mrs. H. J. Booth of Lincoln avenue, who was stranded about the face and body a little over a month ago when she was thrown from her machine as it crashed into another car in Detroit, has practically recovered, according to her physician. She spent about a week with her daughter, Mrs. E. H. Miller of Portland, Oregon, recently and returned to her home here much better than when she left.

WHAT THEY THINK ABOUT
 The new quarter-million dollar hotel and theater building to be erected on South Woodward avenue this fall.

LOCALS
 C. H. Yaxley spent several days in Chicago, Ill., last week on business. He was buying Christmas merchandise. Last year this shop, which is located in the Field Building, was one of the big centers for Xmas merchandise in Birmingham. Parents found everything from presents to the assortment of gifts for grownups was as good as a piece of cake. Yaxley intends to place before the people of this community a line of Xmas goods such as has never before been shown here, and made every effort while on this trip to select unusual and up-to-date goods for the coming season.

DR. FRANK B. BRODERICK
 None of the "hard-boiled" discipline which marks some hospitals for former soldiers will be tolerated at the Roosevelt Hospital of the American Legion, designed particularly for subordinate veterans of the World War. Dr. Frank B. Broderick, state welfare officer of the American Legion, has outlined a plan which the Legion in certain cases will maintain order without imposing on the men. "Self-government is the answer," said Dr. Broderick and the "necessary regulations will be made by the men, as a body."

STOP UP MOUSE HOLES
 Take a cup of common washing soap, stir the hole with it, and you may rest assured you will have no further trouble from that quarter. It is also good for rats and ants.

YOUNG MEN WILL GATHER AT SAGINAW THIS MONTH
 The purpose of the conference is to bring the boys together from all parts of the state for inspiration and discussion of life's problems, and to inspire them to hold the challenge to life of great usefulness in the home, church, school, community, the nation, and the world.

PERSONAL
 Mrs. Lester Allan and Mrs. Andrew McDonald spent several days of the week at the home of their sister, Mrs. Harry Elkins of Pontiac.

PERSONAL
 One evening last week the Baldwin Auditorium was again filled for a motion picture show when "Humoresque" was shown. The entertainment was given by the Junior Class of the High school, and the proceeds will be devoted to class expenses for the present term.

PERSONAL
 Reports of the baked safe which the ladies of the Aid Society of the First Baptist church gave last week at the Schiano meat market, show it to have been a big success. The proceeds were devoted to the general fund of the society.

PERSONAL
 A magnificent case of stately blossoms of yellow, golden brown, cream, salmon, pink and white, greets the tourist as he enters the display room of H. J. Bell on South Woodward avenue. The chrysanthemum season has just opened and those who have examined the display have found it to be one of the most complete as to variety and color that is being shown in or around Detroit. It includes large shaggy blooms, more dignified and less conspicuous ones, clusters of shaded ones in brown and yellow and the delicate but brilliant chrysanthemum. Decorators for dinners, dances, parties and teas, are using the flower to splendid advantage, and the local floral houses report large sales of the blossoms although the season has not yet reached its height.

MICKIE SAYS—
 "THIS NEWSPAPER ADVERTISES OUR TOWN IN DISTANT STATES WHILE OUR MONEY PROMPT BANKER OR MERCHANT IS UNKNOWN AND THE IMPRESSION THO OUTSIDE WORLD GAINS OF THIS CITY DEPENDS ON HOW WELL YOU SUPPORT YOUR HOME PAPER AND LOOK PROSPEROUS IT LOOKS"

BONUS HELPS TRADE AS DOUGHBOYS BUY
 What do Michigan ex-soldiers do with their bonus?
 Blow it in! Quit their jobs until it is gone?
 "Gout their teeth" or "quit their roll" in gambling?
 All these dire possibilities were forecast by the foes of the state bonus, and are being repeated by the enemies of the national bonus. But Dr. Frank B. Broderick, state welfare officer of the American Legion, who comes in contact with more "average" men than any other individual in the state, says:
 "They pay up old bills. They put it in saving banks—30 per cent of them—for insurance against unemployment. They buy needed clothing, which stimulates trade. Some get married and set up house-keeping. But one man in a hundred 'shoots his wad'—and no one who really knew the sensible, sober dough-boy ever thought they would."
