A WEEKLY BULLETIN EDITED BY THE STUDENTS OF BALDWIN HIGH SCHOOL

With the cheer and school songs of Tuesday night's mass meeting still ringing in their ears the B. H. S. football team trotted out onto the field for a victory and with this spirit went into the fray and defeated the last Rochester eleven 24-0.

The game was contested in the open style of play, both teams relying on end runs and trick plays for gains.

Wesley Groves, former Pontiac player, who was ineligible at the first of the season, made his appearance on the field and to initiate himself made a touchdown.

The Marston and Whites' first touchdown came in the initial period of the game when after carrying the ball into the visitors' territory, "Blood" Smith ran twenty yards around Rochester's right flank for a touchdown.

In the second quarter Rochester had its only scoring chance when their left made a four-yard run but for the timely tackle of W. Gray would have resulted in a touchdown for the visitors. Rochester was unable to score and the B. H. S. machine was carrying the ball out to defeat when the half was up.

The locals' first touchdown came in the third period of play by the completion of a pass, Smith to Groves, which was caught behind the goal. Smith failed to kick and the score 12-0.

In the last period of play the B. H. S. completed a twenty-yard pass, Smith to Delong, which put the ball on the visitors' twenty-yard line but were unable to carry the ball over for another point.

After the game a number of enthusiastic students carried the victors off the field on their shoulders and were greeted by cheers from all sides.

This was the last home game of the season, and a large crowd cheered the players to victory. Today the first team plays Lincoln High at Ferndale. Birmingham is slated to win, but a hard battle is expected.

The line-up:

McBride, J. Lacombe for Delong, R. H. S. Cae for Spalding, Gregory for Stepan.

Last Saturday at Ford Field the B. H. S. second team showed their gameness and fighting spirit when after the Highland Lancers had run up 28-0 score in the first half came back in the second half and held the Lancers to only one touchdown.

The Highland Park team was much heavier and more experienced than our second.

Howard Tugny, quarterback of the first team, after playing a remarkable game was taken over by a "look-alike". Tugny will be counted on as a regular first team player for next year.

The Saturday second team plays Southeastern's second team of Detroit at 2:00 o'clock on Barnum field. This is slated to be a good game as Southeastern boasts an unusually good team this season.

SIDE LIGHTS ON WEDNESDAY'S GAME

That Victory last week! And the school spirit was wonderful. We will hand it to the Juniors for their "pep" and fine appearance. They were all "dressed out" in school colors.

The girls certainly like those football "hunks" they were handing them all sorts of compliments on the sidelines.

Our big Coach wore a gorgeous suit after the battle. He is being rewarded now for his earnest efforts. The townpeople are getting interested, too. A number of them entered into the cheering and the rest just grinned.

The Senior girls arrived on the field in a body and their cheering rang in the ears of everyone.

October 26, thirty Sophomores voted to join the home of Mr. and Mrs. A. E. Moore on the Thirteenth road, where they enjoyed a large luncheon. Several games were played, including a spelling game conducted by Mr. Hart. Cider, apples and doughnuts were served after the evening.

The eighth Senior Class meeting was called to order by the president, Oct. 25, for the purpose of electing as many more of the Annual Staff as possible. The following officers were elected: Literary editor, Forbes Hascall; assistant literary editor, Orson Schinck; alumni editor, Dorothy Dunbar; head of the Finance, McKinley; snapshot editor, Lawrence Coster; girl athletic editor, Cora; secretary, Miss Sherman and Miss Travis. The remaining officers will be elected later.

"Oh say did you see" that wonderful football game last Wednesday? We Senior girls were so proud of our team that we wanted to show our appreciation of their splendid team effort. Accordingly, we invited the football men to a "feed" in the cafeteria at 6:00 o'clock Wednesday evening. The room was decorated in crimson and white with various signs greeting the eye telling the visitors about Rochester. After the plan of whose meal was concluded, Captain Wilcox cut the B. H. S. cake.

Miss Helen Dixon, senior vice president, welcomed the boys and supervised the toasts. A representative of each position on the field gave a talk on his duties. Mr. Dixon and Mr. Hart expressed their appreciation of the game and inspired us with words of school spirit. Miss Sherman and Miss Travis, our advisors, spoke a few words. We do not wish to be excused by lower classmen because we were the first to entertain the boys. We hope we have established a precedent and that in the future years all classes will do the same. Long live, School Spirit in the B. H. S.

JUNIOR CLASS REPORT

Juniors again head other classes. Tuesday night the first mass meeting of the season was held in the Baldwin Auditorium. At the conclusion of the meeting five Juniors carried Rochester in such a manner that they remained in the gray.

The Juniors showed fine school spirit at the last home game by decorating all of their members with the school colors. They led the B. H. S. students from high school to Barnum field by the end of the Junior Band.

At the movie, the Juniors again showed what they could do by the number of people who attended the game.

The Junior class party like all other Junior projects was a decided success. After a grand time prizes were given for the best costumes. A very novel scheme was used in finding the partners for the evening. Numbered party pipes were given out and corresponding numbers remained together during the evening. Games of various kinds were enjoyed by all. Dancing followed and the evening was completed with fine eats.

A contest was held between the boys and the girls of the Junior class to see who could sell the most tickets for "Humorous" the Junior movie which was given Oct. 28. Alice Wiet was appointed the girl's leader, and Mark Smith the boys'. The girls sold the most tickets and the boys gave to give them a dinner in their honor soon.

CITIZENS HERE ASKED TO OBSERVE ARMISTICE DAY

November 11, Armistice Day, will be declared a national holiday in honor of America's unknown soldiers to be honored that day in Arlington. The local Legion Post will not take part in a demonstration here, according to Commander R. C. Moulthrop. Arrangements have been made to go to Royal Oak and return the courtesy of that Post who marched here a year ago.

The schools of Birmingham, owing to examinations on Wednesday, Thursday preceding Armistice Day, will not have a program but will be dismissed Friday.

Starting at five minutes to twelve and continuing until 12:25, community services will be held in St. James Episcopal church in which everyone in Birmingham is expected to take part.

Village Manager Brown asks that all business houses be decorated in an appropriate manner and that all homes in the village display the American flag. He also requests that citizens take part in local services in observance of the day.

RESIDENTS OF 13-MILE ROAD ORGANIZE SUNDAY SCHOOL

The people of the 13-mile road district and many of their friends from other communities met at the new district school house, known as the Parker school, one evening last week and took part in the first community services to be held there this winter. Plans were made for these services to be continued throughout the winter.

During the evening Rev. W. C. McKnight spoke to the parents and children on the need of Christian service.

The new Sunday school organization for this community has been organized for some time and the leaders for the evening took advantage of the large number gathered together and formulated plans for a regular Sunday school. The people elected as officers: Mr. Evans, secretary; Mr. and Mrs. Hagan, treasurer.

There are to be four grades, the second, which Mr. Younggreen will have charge of, the intermediate, of which Mr. Evans will be the leader, the Junior department over which Miss Oona Sharpe will preside, and the Primary and Kindergarten departments will be in charge of Mrs. May Hagan.

The community around the 13-mile road has been growing so rapidly that such an organization has been needed since early summer. It is expected that with officers and heads of departments chosen, further work of organizing will not be so great as before. By doing a little each week to make the Sunday school as adequate as possible it can be accomplished before spring is at hand. No doubt the department will have to be enlarged then, according to the number of families that are coming into the community daily.

WOMAN'S LITERARY CLUB

Tuesday afternoon, Nov. 1, marked the inauguration for the Woman's Literary Club; the meeting was held for the first time in the Arbor Tea Room, and representatives of other women's organizations of Birmingham were present by invitation to participate in a program on "Child Welfare". The roll call was responded to by the members, with brief but valuable suggestions for governing children.

Chief on the program was a paper on "The Child" by Mrs. George Clark, clearly and comprehensively stating the scope and possibilities of child welfare work.

Mrs. W. McAlpine who as chairman introduced each speaker, also read a paper on "Child Welfare" and the progress made in legislation regarding child welfare.

Mrs. George Singer and her daughter, Winona, entertained with appropriate vocal solos and a piano feature.

Of the visitors present, Mrs. Peter McAlpine represented and spoke for the Parent-Teachers' Association; Mrs. George R. Averill for the members of the Birmingham Branch of the National Association of University Women; Mrs. E. A. Sing for the W. M. A.; Mrs. Blanche Barr for the Library Association; and Mrs. R. H. Heston for the newly formed circle of the Child Conservation League.

Miss L. A. Barber, who represented the Literary Club as its president, presided just preceding Mrs. Hewitt, who read a paper on "Child Welfare" and was warmly received at the close of the meeting through the courtesy of Mrs. Mary Bosworth, proprietor of the Arbor Tea Room.

Harold Jarvis sings "The Lifted Veil," "Little Mother of Mine" and other songs at the Methodist Church Sunday night. "The Next War" is the sermon subject by Joseph Hartman, pastor, at the Methodist church.
