First Presbyterian Church. This church showed very clearly last Sunday that its people believe in a church home. With the magnificent audences both morning and evening, the seriousness of the fellowship, the seriousness of the unusual Communion service, and the cordiality of the reception to the new members, a new note of cooperation and consecration was struck.

Birmingham United Presbyterian. Bible school hour next Sabbath will be given over to a Rally Day program to be given by members of the school. The hour is 1:30 P. M. and all are invited.

Social and Personal

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Nagle (nee Miss Gladys Bird) who have been spending a two weeks' honeymoon in Kentucky, have returned to Birmingham and making their residence at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. R. D. Bird of West Maple avenue. They will be settled in their own home, the old Mary McDonald house on Pierce street, this week sometime and will welcome their friends there.

The Queen Esther society of the Methodist Episcopal church held the church last week when 17 of the members were in attendance. Plans were made for a special program at the next meeting, in November.

Mr. and Mrs. Samuel C. Mills, who have been spending their summer vacation at their summer home at Drayton Plains, have returned to Birmingham and are at home on Hamilton avenue.

Evening services will start in St. James church Oct. 16. Union services were held during the summer months and the regular evening service in most of the churches have been resumed here.

Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Wendolph and family, who have been making their home at the 12-Mile Road, will move to Birmingham Saturday and occupy the north half of the Schlaack Terrace on South Woodward avenue, at the corner of Clark street.
