Moca Voice is How Wanted S.A.

There is a peculiar quality in each human voice that is so individual that the very personality of the speaker is given out.

How often do your friends say to you, "Oh, I knew you by your voice?" For this reason long-distance telephone conversations have an en-phatic value aside from the convenience of an immediate reply to questions and the opportunity for discussion.

Send your own voice over the Long Distance wire in all important transactions and it is as if you had been present yourself. This is the satisfying way-the modern way to transact your affairs.

The following information about different classifications of Long Distance calls will aid you in using the telephone most economically and efficiently.

If you will talk to any person answering the telephone, the toll charge will be about one-fifth less than as if you had asked for a particular person at that address,

2. Such service between 830 P. M. and Midnight costs only about one-half the day rates and between Midnight and 4.30 A. M. it costs only about one-fourth the Nexticular person calls are those in which you ask to talk with a particular person in another city. Or this class of calls a report charge is made if the person saked for cannot be communicated with through no fault of the Telephone Company. This charge is not made if the connection is established. The report-charge samounts to about on-fifth of the particular person rate.
