Social and Personal News

Mr. and Mrs. Earl Potter, of Oakland avenue, are at home after spending a three weeks' vacation, taking the St. Lawrence River trip. On their return they visited Lake Champlain and the Ausable River and took the trip down the Hudson to New York City where they spent several days before arriving in Birmingham. The early part of this week Mr. and Mrs. Potter accompanied their parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Uptegraft, of Frank and Purdy streets, to Flint, where the party attended the marriage of Miss Frances Potter, who became the bride of Alton Elbridge Smith. Mrs. Potter was the soloist at the ceremony.

Mrs. John Hanna, formerly of 122 Forest street, has gone to Ann Arbor, where she joined her three sons, Mack, Warren and Donald. She will remain there during the winter and will reside with her sons, who are attending school there. Mark and Warren are students at the University of Michigan and Donald will enter the high school this fall. Mr. Hanna, Village Treasurer, will continue to make his home in Birmingham, making the trip to Ann Arbor as often as is possible to visit his family.

While visiting several places in Michigan, including Grand Rapids, Fenton and Pontiac, Mrs. William Patterson, of New York City, spent the greater part of the summer with her cousin's Mr. and Mrs. Levi Allen, of Hazel street. She returned to her home last week after a season of delightful trips, parties, and entertainments given for her pleasure.

According to reports reaching here this week Clayton Best, of Argus street, and Lester Loumy, of Purdy street, have successfully passed a teacher's examination, and they took in August, at the Pontiac High School. They will probably take positions in the rural districts of the State. Several other young people from this vicinity took the examination and are anxiously awaiting their results.

Mr. and Mrs. John C. Stribling, of South Woodward avenue, and Mr. and Mrs. Charles G. Walker, 162 South Woodward, left the village early Sunday morning for Indianapolis, Indiana, where they were to spend about a week or ten days visiting relatives. They made the trip by motor.

Rev. P. M. McKay made a business trip to Bay City, Saturday. He returned in time for Sunday evening services. Dr. H. C. Gless, of Detroit, occupied the pulpit of the First Baptist church, Sunday morning. Rev. McKay preached in the First Baptist church at Pontiac, Sunday morning.

The son of Mr. and Mrs. Lester Purdy, of Baines street, who was operated on in a Detroit hospital several weeks ago, is much improved and will soon be enjoying normal good health if he continues to gain as he has been for the past week.

Miss Lulagene Briggs spent several days of last week in the village following her arrival to be present at the marriage of Miss Edith Lillian Burnett and Gerald Henry Curtis, which took place last Wednesday evening. Miss Briggs returned at Schoolcraft, Michigan.

Thomas E. Harris resumed at Birmingham the early part of this week, after spending several days with Mr. and Mrs. Minks, of Fisher, Ill. Mrs. Minks is well known here. She was Miss Viola LaGrange before her marriage and served some time as Village Clerk.

The Misses Martie and Sarah E. Sly left this week, to join Mrs. C. J. Hays and Mr. and Mrs. Fred J. Heanding at Lansing, for a motor trip thru Wisconsin and Minnesota, visiting friends and relatives along the way.

Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Edgar and Mrs. Hazel Wendorff Clark, Village street, have moved from 214 Park street, to 122 Forest this past week. Mr. Clark and Mrs. Edgar are associated with the management of the new Arbor Hotel, located on South Woodward avenue, where they have sold their interest in the business to Mr. and Mrs. Pettibone.

Mr. and Mrs. L. W. Mix and family, of Brown street, arrived in Birmingham Sunday, following a two weeks' sojourn in the northern part of the state. They made the trip by motor and enjoyed camping along the way.

A misstatement was made in the last issue of the Eccentric giving the location of the offices of Dr. P. D. Hilly as being the First National Bank block. They are in the Quarten block.

Mrs. Ernest Baily, who has been spending two weeks at Crystal Lake "Hill Haven" cottage with friends, has returned to her home on Hamilton avenue.

Mr. and Mrs. O. Chamberlain and family, residents of Washington, Michigan, were in Birmingham several days of last week on business, and while here were the guests of Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Walters.

Miss Minnie Wiles has returned to her home at Orion, after spending a week with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. N. McDonald, of Pierce street.

Following two months of closed session for the pupils of the Christian Science Sunday School, South Woodward avenue, all classes will be opened this Sunday, September 3.

Mrs. A. R. Looney, of Purdy street, who underwent an operation several weeks ago, in Harper Hospital, Detroit, is rapidly recovering and is again able to live up and about the house.

Mr. and Mrs. Clyde McPherson and family, of West Franklin, Michigan, have come to Birmingham and are making their home on Park street.

After spending some time with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. E. A. King, Miss Buelan King has returned to Detroit, where she is in training at Harper Hospital.

Miss Irene Scheitler, of Brownell street, left Birmingham last Friday, to spend several days with her mother at Kingston, Ont.

WEDDINGS

An exceptionally pretty wedding took place Wednesday, Aug. 17, at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Hans C. Olsen, 406 West Washington st., Greenville, Mich., when their daughter, Miss Christine, was united in marriage to Seaver M. Perkins, of West Branch. The bride was a graduate of the Birmingham high school in the class of 1918 and was successful in her work as a teacher. She has many friends here. The groom served in the navy during the late war. Mr. and Mrs. Perkins will be at home to their many friends at West Branch after Sept. 1st.

Mr. and Mrs. William Olsen and family and Miss Minnie Bell spent the week at Greenville and were present at the wedding.

Bride-Elect Showers

As a complement to Miss Elmira Bassett, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Bassett, Bloomfield Township, several delightful affairs have been given during the past few weeks, including the linen shower at which Mrs. Grace Gordon, of Southfield avenue, was hostess. She entertained a number of young friends of Miss Bassett and the occasion proved to be an especially brilliant one. The house was attractive in garden flowers and the color scheme in the dining room where luncheon was served, also favored the varied hues of the summer bouquets.

Another promising event among the pre-nuptial affairs was a linen shower given at the home of Mrs. Charles Rabha, of Detroit, last Friday. Miss Bassett received many handsome gifts presented by the large number of guests present.

The marriage of Miss Bassett to Isaac Breeding, Jr., will take place the 14th of September at the home of Father Ryan, Harmon avenue, at 9 o'clock in the morning. Mr. Breeding is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Isaac Breeding, Sr., of Bradenton, Florida. He left his home Thursday, of this week, to make the journey here.

"TAKE IT FROM ME"

"Take It From Me," the three-ring circus of musical comedy opening at the Garrick Theatre next Sunday night for a week's engagement, is a winner. As a conglomerate of comedy and kicking it sets a new pace of light entertainment to clock by. As a plot model it is better than the average. As a medium for philosophy designed to dispel the dull cares of business it is a revelation. All in all, it is A-1 amusement. It is one of the breeziest, swiftest, most tuneful and altogether delightful musical comedies to hit the trail this season, if not for several seasons.

"Take It From Me" not only has a story which can be traced without resorting to a finger print system, but delightful music, good "business" throughout, sparkling lines, tip-top dancing and all sorts of snap and dash.

Among the clever farceurs, singers, and dancers are: Marjorie Sweet, Alice Hill, Charles Meakens, Arline and Helen Gardiner, John E. Hennings, Edgar Gardner, Charles Welch, Homer, Herbert Salminger, Harry Burnham, Roscoe Patch, George Abbotte, George Mortimer and a large chorus of stunning girls.
