WEDDINGS

Bird—Nagle
The marriage of Miss Gladys Bird and Charles Nagle last week came as a surprise to most of their friends. This intimacy of the affair took place in Toledo and the young couple left for the groom's home in Kentucky.

Mrs. Nagle has always lived in and around Birmingham and was a student in the local school during her school life. She has been an active member of the young people's societies in the Methodist church and is well known socially in the village. She is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Robert D. Bird of Maple avenue.

After a period of two weeks Mr. and Mrs. Nagle will return to Birmingham to make their home. Several showers and parties are planned in their honor and will be given upon their arrival here.

Bassett—Brooding
Society has turned its attention to various activities of clubs, societies and persons of local prominence and interest than the event of last week which created so much interest among the members of "do things." The event was the marriage of Mr. Elmer Bassett, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Bassett of West Maple road, to Isaac Brooding, Jr., son of Mr. and Mrs. Isaac Brooding, Jr., of the home of the bride's parents.

The morning of September 14th at nine o'clock the ceremony took place under a bow of Snow-on-the-Mountain and ferns. The bridal party entered the room to the strains of a wedding march rendered by Mr. Rommie Adams of Detroit. In her train followed the bride, who was escorted by her father, Mr. J. A. Bassett, who was dressed in pink organdie and carried a large bouquet of pink, roses and white blossoms of several kinds. Above the table was suspended a large ball of roses and scattered about the huge cake in the center of the table were roses and Gerbs. From two to six o'clock a large reception with over a hundred guests in attendance was given at the home and the young couple left at nine o'clock for the home of the groom to spend two weeks. From there they will go to Brantford, Fla., to take. Their home is furnished and waiting for them and will be ready to receive the bride and her party of lovely gifts which accompanied them.

Last Sunday at the home of the groom, a family reunion of over 500 persons was held and the happy couple were again showered with presents by their new home. Mr. and Mrs. Bassett, parents of the bride, will leave Birmingham in about five weeks to spend the winter with Mr. and Mrs. Brooding, Jr.
