

ROYAL THEATRE

ROYAL OAK

SATURDAY, OCTOBER 1—
CONSTANCE TALMADGE in "A PERFECT WOMAN"
"Mr. Fatim"—Comedy Mutt and Jeff Cartoon

SUNDAY and MONDAY—OCTOBER 2 and 3—
"THE TRUTH ABOUT HUSBANDS"
The truth about husbands is a mystery involving, in many instances, not only the present but the past. Men are not born to marriage, but achieve marriage as a special condition of life—a graduation from earlier false ideals and relationships.
Harold Lloyd Comedy Paramount Magazine

TUESDAY, OCTOBER 4—
NO SHOW ON THIS DATE

WEDNESDAY and THURSDAY, OCTOBER 3 and 6—
"THE OATH"
The drama that gives tongue to the silent art, to express a force greater than the play of words.
The creation of master artists, painting love, distrust, romance, the worlds emotions, on the living canvas of the screen.
Also a Tonerville Trolley Comedy

FRIDAY, OCTOBER 7—
TOM MIX in "THE BIG TOWN ROUND-UP"
This play shows Mix at his very best. But it contains a vein of humor that is contagious and serves as a relief from the high tension which accompanies the development of the young ranch owner's adventures in the city in pursuit of the romance born "back home."
Also a Hank Mann Comedy

Notice—Ladies' Rest Room downstairs; Men's Smoking Room on the Balcony.

DETROIT SHOWS AND THE SILVER SCREEN BIRMINGHAM

Free Concerts All Week
The beautiful $5000 Bartola orchestra which was purchased by the management of the Royal Theatre of Royal Oak, has been installed and free concerts have been given the entire week past, in connection with the regular bill on the screen. The concerts were given at each performance and were greatly appreciated by the patrons of the Royal. The pipe organ is of wonderful tone and reminds one of one of the big downtown play houses of Detroit. The popularity of the pictures has brought a large attendance at the new picture house.

At the Shubert-Michigan
William A. Brady will present his daughter, Alice Brady, at the Shubert-Michigan Theatre, Detroit, for one week, beginning Sunday, Oct. 2, in "Forever After," her greatest success on the singing stage. It is a play of youth and love, war and faith, which ran for 344 consecutive performances in New York.
It is a pastoral story of the poor country doctor's boy, who went to war and was shot through the lungs, and of Jennie, the rich man's daughter, who loved him from a schoolboy. The story ends happily, as to be expected, but before love's kinks are all straightened out very effective scenes are presented.

Comedy at the Garrick
At the Garrick Theatre, beginning Sunday, Oct. 2, Max Marcin will make his initial bow to Detroit theatregoers as a promoter who presents for the first time in Detroit the delicious comedy of Frederick S. Isham, entitled "Three Live Ghosts," which ran all last season at the Nora Bayes Theatre, New York. It tells of the amusing adventures of a trio of soldiers who, reported dead, return home to find themselves unable to prove their identity, and causing a thousand complications by their sudden and unexpected appearance. The play is not a war play, but the war formed a convenient background and a legitimate one for the disappearance of the trio.
For those who love real acting, a real play with real laughs ingeniously combined with real heart throbs, real people and a real story, "Three Live Ghosts" is one production coming to the Garrick that they cannot afford to miss.

The Oakland, Pontiac
"Two Weeks With Pay," the newest Bebe Daniels picture, which opened in Pontiac yesterday for a four-day run at the Oakland Theatre, is the sprightly tale of a working girl's vacation. Miss Daniels is seen in a dual role, that of the little salesgirl and a famous film actress for whom she is mistaken. But it is in the adventures of Pansy the salesgirl, that the audience is interested.
It would be awfully hard on the store keepers and office executives of the land if all vacations ended so triumphantly for the girls and so badly for business as did Pansy's little old two weeks. But from Pansy's standpoint, her vacation was a huge success, even though it started rather inauspiciously in a mud puddle.
Also on the screen is showing the movies made at the Milford Fair, Friday, Sept. 16th—"Pontiac Day." All Fatima of Oakland county was apparently represented at the fair and splendid

May McAvoy takes the stellar role of this little young woman makes a great hit in some of the close-ups, as the candidate for matrimonial honors on the feminine side of the bargain. The film is supplemented with Harold Lloyd comedy at all shows.
The show for tomorrow is Constance Talmadge in "A Perfect Woman," supplemented with "Mr. Fatima" comedy. On Tuesday there is no show. "The Oath," a drama, is booked for Wednesday and

Thursday, with Tonerville comedy, and on Friday Tom Mix appears in "The Big Town Round-up."

St. James Benefit
The women of St. James League have announced their plans to give a motion picture show in the auditorium of the Baldwin high school. The date has been set for Oct. 7. The play will be "The Inside of the Cup," the much-talked-of new film. The returns of this picture will be used for the general fund.

Big Bill at Howland
The world's tallest man, with the smallest horse, is coming to the Howland at Pontiac next Wednesday, Thursday and Friday. He will be there in person and in film, tickling the stars in the ribs, chucking the girls in the moon and possibly winding up the court house clock. His name is Longfellow and he weighs nearly ten stone. The horse weighs four stone and walks under Longfellow's legs. This gaudy youth was born in Texas and when 11 years of age his mother had a mixup with a railroad conductor because he wanted to collect full fare. In addition to Bill Longfellow the regular feature program includes a high class musical revue and film features, and large crowds are expected daily.
