The Water Situation.

The past week and its civic activities should mark a place in the history of Birminghan this will ever be remembered by this and the generations to come. We believe that it marks the beginning of a real split upon to Birmingham's annual water shortage.

If the plans under consideration by the Citizens' Water Commission bear fruit—and we think they will be the consideration by the Citizens' Water Commission bear fruit—and we think they will we shall soon be pumping thru our water mains enough of the precious liquid to insure us free and unrestricted use of it to more than care to the consideration only for the present, but for the present to come.
