OBITUARY

Martha Allen
The death of Miss Martha E. Allen occurred in Grace hospital, Detroit, April 22, following an illness of over a year. Miss Allen's death is of interest to many Birmingham residents as she spent almost her entire life in this community and was "very well known."

The deceased was born in Bloomfield township, May 21, 1865. She spent her life near the home of her childhood and graduated from the schools of Birmingham. Later she taught school in the Village, followed by a short term of teaching at Albion, where her health broke down some years ago. She had lived a retired life from that time until the time of her death.

Miss Allen was the daughter of Sarah and James Allen, and was the oldest of four children. She was survived by her mother, now residing in Detroit, and sister, Mrs. James B. Pierce, and two brothers, Luther and Albert.

Funeral services were held from the home of her sister, in Detroit, at 2 o'clock Thursday afternoon. Burial was in Greenwood cemetery, Birmingham.

Clarence R. McDonald
The death of Clarence R. McDonald, a retired farmer living on Bloomfield avenue, occurred in Harper hospital, Detroit, Tuesday night April 25, following an illness of several weeks.

Mr. McDonald was born November 26, 1858, in Masodon, Ohio. He came to Michigan when a small boy with his parents, William and Louise McDonald, and had been a resident of Oakland county since that time. His occupation was farming until a few years ago when his health made it necessary for him to retire from the same.

Funeral services were held from the Covenant church of Southfield, Thursday morning, at 10 o'clock. Burial was in Greenwood cemetery, Birmingham. The deceased is survived by his wife and several children.

LINCOLN'S FORDSON'S FORDS

The Fordson Tractor is taking much of the drudgery out of farm life; it is solving the labor problem; it is reducing the cost of preparing land by almost one-half of what it was with horses; and it is saving one-third to one-half of the farmer's time; and making farm life more attractive.

The Fordson will run your threshing machine—and at the most opportune time for you. It will operate the milking machines; saw your wood, fill your silo, pump the water, and take care of every kind of belt work—

"Yes I've more time for Myself Since I Got a Fordson"

There's a big story to tell you about the Fordson—and a true one—come in and get the facts. Or, if you prefer, telephone or drop us a card and we will bring them to you.
