SOMETHING IS WRONG

When the Supreme Architect of the Universe conceived in His Omniscient mind years ago—perhaps millions of them—the plan of ordering into being the peoples of this earth...

At Whitehead & Bigelow's the best of tea at 30c; green coffee 15c.

Change of time on the D. G. H. & M. R. K. is that the steamboats will leave for the old time at present instead of once.

Twenty-five Years Ago—Oliver Wendell Holmes said: "The best verse to recite at present is the one about the trees I have planted."

The Village Improvement Society is making an effort to have residents on the outskirts of Birmingham plant trees on the roads leading into the Village.

On this page you will find W. Mitchell's ad for bicycles.

Don't let anyone persuade you that trees on either side of the road will make bad roads.

We, who live in and near Birmingham, are an integral part of this vast universe. Therefore, something is wrong with us.

Home use, Italians are not the ones. No man is aptly to do all the work of the Electric Railway.

We understand that workmen on the Electric Railway save $2.75 weekly enough pay. They said they wouldn't work less than $3.00 but they are all at work today, however.

"PRESS PICKINGS"—Petitions are being circulated in Rochester, asking the State Utilities Commission to compel the D. U. R. to take up the highway on the line of trolley and stone highway.

The Board of Commerce of Milford is considering purchasing a radio set to give public concerts.

The Farmers' Elevator at Berville, five miles north of Armaud, was destroyed by fire, Monday.

Widening of Woodward avenue in 1922 has not been entirely abandoned by the Board of Public Works.

The Royal Oak Tribune's new home is under course of construction at 314 South Washington avenue.

A. L. Craft, county commissioner of schools, has made public the regulations which will be held in rural schools in the county, April 14.

Twenty-two criminal cases are to be placed on the April term of circuit court, Eastern division.

A flower show will be held at Clarkston in August. Prizes, including a silver cup, will be offered for the best exhibit.

Mrs. D. W. Curry was hostess one dinner last week to the ladies of the Ladies' Social Club.

Local folks who do not attend the Wednesday noon luncheons of the Birmingham Real Estate Board are missing a treat.

FROM THE ECCENTRIC COLUMNS

Forty-Four Years Ago—We experienced a second winter several days of last week.

The Eccentric turned out 3,500 election tickets last week besides a number of slips.

At the second anniversary celebration event of the Birmingham Reform Club the managers have decided to make a special feature of the affair.

There was some little bit of confusion in Birmingham last Thursday. At the same time seven families within the limits were moving.

A. W. Woodson is beautifying his place by setting out some very fine maple trees.

Wanted—A girl for general housework. Will pay two dollars a week for the best.

BY WIDOW MACHREE

I wish that man, George Averill, would let a body be And not come cooing copy from poor old Widow Machree;

Of other days and other ways I think of now and then, And old-time folks and old-time women and old men.

You'd think the wife friend Averill talks, I'd seen a hundred years, And could tell you a thing or two about the things that were.

Those times were sadly different, comparing then and now. The dear girls ate just what they liked and never studied how.

We women wore long dresses then, that trailed a yard or more And gathered perms and other things and microbes by the score;

Just what to drink and when or how, each man could freely choose. We never had to percolate the poisonous home-made booze.

But, still I can't complain about the way things are today. Of trolley-cars and motor trucks and a thousand things like these,

AT BALDWIN HIGH—We hear the words "School spirit," and we wonder what they mean.

Do you trust the porter at your door of thought? Remember he holds the key to your mind.

Do you know that Birmingham, the town you frequently find yourself criticizing is considered one of the most prosperous, desirable and beautiful little villages in the entire state?
