CHORAL CLUB TO GIVE "OLIVET TO CALVARY" Will Be Presented in First Presbyterian Church Evening Of April 13; Public Invited

An opportunity will be given the people of Birmingham to hear members of the local Choral Club entertain with one of their famous concerts the evening of April 13, at the First Presbyterian church. "Olivet to Calvary" is the selection to be presented and much effort has been put forth on perfecting the various parts.

The Club has given several entertainments since they organized two years ago and many local residents were disappointed this winter after they had missed the splendid entertainment given in the Methodist church by this society.

Gerald Schrage, who so pleasingly carried the solo parts in the last concert, will carry the leading role on Thursday evening. His part is a difficult one and he is practicing it with his time and attention these past few weeks. The Club feels that any audience which hears Mr. Schrage is being given a real musical treat.

Social and Personal

Four sisters, Mrs. William Davenport, Mrs. William Hamilton, Mrs. Agnes White and Mrs. Minnie Stephens, gathered at the home of Mrs. Stephens the evening of March 31 and celebrated the birthday anniversary of their sister, Mrs. Belle Brown of Bates street. The affair was a surprise to Mrs. Brown, who was invited to the home of her sister late in the afternoon and was urged to remain for dinner. When the doors to the dining room were opened the guests were assembled there and the table was most attractive, decorated in pink and white and centered with a large pink and white birthday cake bearing 71 pink candles. With the exception of one sister, Mrs. White, who is a resident of Royal Oak, the guests were all from Birmingham.

Mrs. R. S. Pognit of Adam avenue, and her daughter, Miss Loreta, will leave the early part of next week for Washington to spend about ten days. After that time they will go to New York City for a few days, later returning to their home in Birmingham.

Mrs. Leigh Lynch of Ridgedale avenue, who has been spending several weeks in Ohio with her mother, has returned to her home.

Under the constant care of a physician and a trained nurse, Harris Lamb has been in a critical condition for the past two weeks suffering from pleuro-pneumonia. His condition from time to time has slightly improved, and a decided change for the better is expected within a few days.

Miss Dena Hallock, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Hallock of Ann street, who has been teaching kindergarten at Battle Creek for the past year, spent her last week with her parents in Birmingham. Miss Hallock graduated from the Baldwin high school seven years ago. She was extensively entertained by her friends upon her return here.
