STARS ON MEMORIAL TREES

Living Memorials to 308 of Missouri's Here Dead Lie the Famous King's Highway.

Living memorials, sheltering those who come their way, always serving 308 pleasant shade trees along King's Highway in St. Louis stand as a monument to 308 Missouri men who have lived their lives during the World war.

In Memory of Hero Dead. Each tree bears a gold star. A hero's name, the name of the unit and branch of service to which he was attached are engraved on each star.

Ranking West Point Cadet. Charles Barrett, former "Buck" Private, Honor Man of Class of 1922 at Great Academy.

From a "Buck private in the rear rank" in 1917 to the highest ranking major at West Point is the record of Charles J. Barrett.

BOXER WHO SINGS AND READS

W. M. Littleton, an Ec-Gob. One of Many Legion Sluggers to Carry Away Honors.

A boxer who sings baritone and reads classical literature is about as rare as an athlete at a church social. W. M. Littleton, better known as "Happy" Littleton, a southern middle-weight champion boxer, has an unusual hobby which he uses when the boys get together for a "knock-out" in his little armory.

But the fact that Littleton can sing and drink does not keep him from being a good boxer. He recently worked the knuckles on both his hands on Bill Smith's head when the two fought in the city gymnasium in that match just as he had in others with Joe Chip, Buck O'Brien, Joe Farrell and Jack Bloomfield.

INTERESTED IN LEGION WORK

Maj. Gen. John LeJume Accepts Invitation to Attend Convention in New Orleans.

In accepting the invitation of the American Legion to attend the fourth annual convention of the Legion in New Orleans, La., in October, Maj. Gen. John A. LeJume, commander of the First Marine Corps, expressed his appreciation of the Legion and his interest in its activities.

"Louisiana is my native state, and for that reason, as well as on account of my interest in the American Legion, it will be a pleasure for me to attend the convention," General LeJume said.

The military career of the marine corps leader embraces some of the most important of the World war. He came into greatest prominence when he commanded the Fourth brigade of marines at the battle of Belleau Wood, the Meuse-Argonne and in the Rhine country.

WOMEN CHOOSE THE HOME

In normal times, 29 out of every 100 persons engaged in manual occupations in the United States are women.

At present it is believed that 8,000,000 women and girls are at work and that a fourth of them will be in the industry, teaches normal conditions.

This fact women applies to almost every field of enterprise. Yet these figures take no account of the vastly greater number of women who are not classed as in "manual occupations" but who perform the natural function of women—home-making.

The woman who is a homemaker may not be able to count her income in dollars as accurately as the other, who draws a fixed salary, yet she is in a financial position to be free, says the Bureau.

Her "jewels" may be her sons and daughters and her reward may be less than that, but she has it in the satisfaction of having done a man's job in every way that depends on a large extent on proper care during the harvesting period.

Even with the most efficient system of distribution, it is impossible to increase the handwork of an inferior product, says the United States Department of Agriculture in a new publication, Department Bulletin 1049, Marketing Hosiery Cotton.

The selection of properly matured heads is a matter for first attention. Broom corn is in the proper stage for harvest when the fiber is deep green.

The strangest argument we know in favor of evolution is the circus. Circus also so well explains its unshakable hold upon generation after generation, man and old and young.

Circus without animals would be only half a circus. It is because of the animals that only when the human are joined to the animal segment.

In other words, both are necessary to this "story of mankind." The animals, domesticated or wild, are our "companions" and they evolved human descendants.

It may seem strange that the ancestors of the English part of it should have had to borrow from the French the word for so simple a circus trick as making a somersault.
