Built Into The Community's Business Life

Our understanding of the community's needs and problems has enabled us to give sympathetic co-operation and experienced counsel to the commercial interests of this section.

We are, as a good bank should be, an integral part of the business life of the community we serve.

We shall be glad to confer with you.

This column will be devoted to the publishing of letters of general interest to the residents of Birmingham and nearby. All communications must be signed in full by the writer. Letters should preferably be written with typewriter and on one side of paper only.

Mr. J. Allen Buelow of West Maple avenue, brought in the following except from the Detroit Free Press August 25, 1922: "The opinion was that affairs had gone about as far as they could go."

To the Editor: Through this column I should like to ask why residents of Southern...

Another question - Why do farmers if he overloads his truck with 15 pounds of potatoes...

To return to the buses, they help to reduce the congestion on the cars. Many times I have been on the streets...

We, the undersigned signers of the application for the injunction, wish to suggest that Mr. Clibbe takes himself entirely too seriously. As a matter of fact he was not considered at all in the matter as an individual.

Mr. Clibbe, you are not a personal spite against you, in fact, no one grudges it might be your own takes you seriously any more. Your numerous communications through the press are so filled with inconsistencies that you can never tell what you mean, as far, in fact, as your statement of March 19, 1922, you said if the people did not vote your $23,000 bond issue they would have no water this summer for lawns and gardens.

No matter how little or how big your order may be, let us give you an estimate on any of the following:

THE BALDWIN, ROYAL OAK. If you had to choose between riches, coffee and bright lights, on the one hand; and a flat, fireless and delectable meal on the other, which would you decide upon? It is the question which Marie Provost was put up to her in her role of "Her Night of Nights" which is showing tonight at the Baldwin Theatre at Royal Oak.

While the theatrical season does not open until Sept. 10, an orchestra is being rehearsed, which will start at the Baldwin soon, along with the regular opening of the fall season will be held August 24, the headline being a wonderful opera, entitled "Sharn," by "Barnes," Vandulice, orchestra and the best of short subjects are a part of the program, with two performances nightly.

AT THE GARRICK. Out of deference to the many votes cast Miss Bonstelle will offer at the Garrick next week the redoubtable drama, "The Man Who Came Back," by Jules Eckert Goodman, from a story by John Finson Wilson.

AT THE TEMPLE, BIRMINGHAM. Patron of the I. O. O. F. Temple Theatre will be delighted with this week's program. "The Bearcat," a novel feature story will be shown at 8:00 p. m. After this a rattling good comedy, "Peggy Be Good" (a real "side-tickler") will put all the theatre fans in good humor.

TO THE Republican Electors of Oakland County

The friends of LEONARD R. SCHNELL take pleasure in presenting to the Republican Electors of Oakland County his name as a candidate for the office of Sheriff of Oakland County at the Primary Election to be held on the 19th of this coming fall, believing that he is nominated and elected for this office.

Mr. Schnell was born on June 21st, 1889, and has lived in Oakland County all his life. At the present time, he is living in the Village of Ferndale, Royal Oak Township. Mr. Schnell has never held any public elective office and is not appointed Sheriff, to which he was appointed by present Sheriff Butler on January 1st, 1921. Mr. Schnell was actively engaged in the office of Deputy Sheriff from that time until September 14th, 1921, and during that time he was in the Sheriff's Office, was active in a number of important cases, particularly that arising out of a robbery committed in Livingston County by the Carl gang.
