LETTER FROM ALBERT JACOBS, JR., RECEIVED

Son of Lawyer Jacobs, Who is Attending Oxford College, Eng., Reports Progress

LETTER FROM ALBERT

Most of the older residents of Birmingham have no trouble in remembering Lawyer Albert Charles Jacobs, and his family, who about 20 years ago lived in the old yellow brick house which stood on the corner of West Maple street and which belonged to "Dad" Clizbe.

While the Jacobs were living there Albert Charles, Jr. was born. Mrs. Jennie Keys, with Dr. and Mrs. Charles Keyser, Mr. and Mrs. Allen Bigelow, Mr. and Mrs. George Mitchell, and Dr. and Mrs. Shaw, say with the black curly hair that used to be so much in evidence, Albert and going to school with D. A. Greener, Walter Rogers, and Edward Smith, Jr. who's his father died.

Shortly afterward, Mrs. Jacobs took the two children, Albert and Charles, to Ann Arbor where she wanted to carry out the father's wish of a fine education for both of them. Proving himself highly worthy of that effort, letters which come to Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Clement, and Ned Daines, 152 East Maple avenue, where he insisted on spending a goodly share of his younger days, bear the good news that he has just received honors. At the end of a year in the University of Michigan, he was awarded a scholarship which entitled him to three years in Oxford College, England, in any department that he might choose. He has just finished one year there in the law department and is spending the summer in England. He has just finished his first choice. He has just finished one year there in the law department and is spending the summer in England. He has just finished his first choice. He has just finished one year there in the law department and is spending the summer in England.

At Oxford, Sussex, July 16, 1922.

My Dear Mr. Clement: I am spending the summer in England, as I have been in England for over two weeks now. It is a beautiful little spot, but few know it. It is a beautiful little spot, but few know it. It is a beautiful little spot, but few know it. It is a beautiful little spot, but few know it.

My life here is very quiet. Kenneth Hamilton, who I expected to spend the summer with, found out at the last minute that he had to do some hospital work in London, and so I am alone. I study in the mornings for a couple of hours in the afternoon. And then when the weather permits I always put in a few hours on the tennis court. And the day passes quickly but profitably.

I hope that you are well, and having a fine summer. I sure would like to see you all.

With dearest love, Albert.

Once more Birmingham can be proud of the fine start that she gave one of her boys, and of the fine one he is making of it.

W. J. DOWLING

OF interest to racing followers throughout the city is the announcement by W. J. Dowling, secretary-manager of the Alabama State Fair that W. J. "Dip" Dowling, of Owens will have charge of the six-day ranking race meet scheduled for this year's exposition, Detroit, September 1 to 10.

Mr. Dowling has had wide experience in the running horse world and has supervised the races at Bay City, Jackson, Adrian and Grand Rapids fairs in recent years. He is making elaborate preparations for the State Fair meet which will open September 4 and run through the ninth.

The important event of the meeting will be the State Fair Derby, slated for Labor Day. A purse of $10,000 will go to the winner. Purses for the entire meeting will exceed $15,000.

BIRMINGHAM ECCENTRIC

COUNCIL CORNERS

By Mrs. H. Mertzluft Sunday, July 30, was the very happy occasion of a large and joyous reunion of family and friends at the home of Mr. and Mrs. R. Robinson on Maple road. Mrs. Robinson celebrated her 18th birthday. Council Cornered very proud of the Robinson family and they are loved and honored by all who live here, and though their lawn is usually large and spacious, they would not have been room for a tenth part of their invited. But they had known or been invited to the immediate family and most account of Mr. Robinson, who has very serious operation two years ago, old-time health has strongly since. Mrs. and Mr. Robinson were married Dec. 18, 1910, and have had 21 children, 15 of whom are living and strong. Two died—four died in infancy and one died at the age of two. The ones living are Arthur, aged 29 years; Gertrude and Ethel, who are twins, 25, and Edward, 23; Hazel, 21; Myrtle, 19; Harry, 18; Grace, 17; Carrie, 15; William, 13; Marie, 12; Douglas, 9; and Norman, 7 years.

All were present at the reunion except Arthur, who is in Port Huron, and Edna, who is living in Peoria, Ill. The out-of-town guests were Mr. and Mrs. Peter Davidson, Mr. and Mrs. William Morrison, Mr. and Mrs. Ed Morrison, Mr. and Mrs. Andrew Hunter, Mr. and Mrs. Ruth and Mrs. Alice, their respective daughters, Mary Jane, Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Suter and son, Mr. and Mrs. Henry Dalphair and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Dalphair and two daughters, all of Detroit; Mr. and Mrs. Robert Langley and children of Highland Park; Mr. and Mrs. Louis Lueson and daughter, of Bedford; Mrs. Margie Distler of Warren, and Mrs. Edna Distler of Detroit. Mrs. Robinson was the recipient of many beautiful and valuable presents in honor of the occasion. Refreshments were served on the lawn, games were played by all, and at the end of a period of the guests departed to their several homes.

Miss Edna Coffin, who returned from England two years ago and took a course in nursing at the University of the United States. Her sister, Mrs. M. Metzger, said that she is a nurse in the hospital which will arrive at Quebec the last of the week.

Raymond J. Glette of Council corner, has returned to his former home in Buffalo, N. Y., where he will take up a permanent residence. His wife and baby will make their home with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. M. Metzger, 114 School avenue.

Mrs. Fred Fritzke is feeling very well over the disappearance of a small fat half-grown Angora kitten. The two children of Mr. and Mrs. Turner, aged 10 years, and seven months, are suffering from very severe cases of whooping cough. There are several other cases of it here yet.

Mr. and Mrs. Gorch and Mr. Platt drove to Cleveland last Saturday returning to town.

Owing to the continued dry spell there are several wells in the neighborhood coming dry and gardens and lawns are just burning up.

DRAMA AND COMEDY ARE FEATURED AT THE TEMPLE

Tomorrow at the I. O. F. Temple Theatre will be shown a two-reel feature entitled "Heading West."

In addition a two-reel comedy, "The Gay Deceivers," and one reel of news pictures, will delight the spectators.

OBITUARY

Mildred Morris

Funeral services for Miss Mildred Morris, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Daniel C. Morris, of Birmingham, were held Tuesday afternoon, August 14, at the home of her parents, 127 Toward street. The burial took place at Woodmere Cemetery, Detroit.

The deceased was born in Detroit, May 24, 1899. About two years ago she contracted influenza, and after a doubtful struggle recovered. However, her lungs were affected and after an operation for bronchitis at Harpur hospital, last Saturday, she died at the age of 23. She leaves as her only survivors her mother and father. Her father is well known throughout the State in his work as a United States revenue agent.

Mr. and Mrs. H. M. Jacobson of New York City, were the hosts for the funeral of Miss Morris, at the Posthacker of Merrill street.
