INTER-CLASS GAMES

The Sophomores defeated the Freshmen in the third series of the inter-class games scheduled for this week. The boys' crowd game was a much harder battle than the score indicates. Sophomores, 35; Freshmen, 16. Following are the players on their respective teams:

Symons	C.	Haycock

The Sophomore girls had it easy. They didn't play very hard and could have boosted their end of the score if necessary had made it so. The Sophomores were very good to the Freshies and let them get a few baskets. Sophomores, 30; Freshmen, 7.

JUNIOR HIGH ASSEMBLY

The assembly Friday, Dec. 15, was given by the seventh grade under the direction of Miss Grey and Miss Wilson.

The Scripture lesson was read by Francis Fox. The day being near Beethoven's birthday we sang some songs composed by him and were also favored with some of his selections played by Miss Elsie Doying. The encore was one of Schuman's compositions who was a great friend of Beethoven.

Then Mr. McCurdy gave us a very interesting talk on the life of Beethoven. This was followed by some songs by the "Pigtail Quartet," which concluded the program.

SENIOR CHAPEL

Chapel was opened by the school singing "Hark the Herald Angels Sing." The Scripture was read by Miss Bassett. Mr. Drake gave some announcements concerning the basketball game.

Mrs. Charles Shain gave an interesting talk about her trip abroad this summer—it was so realistic one felt as though he were actually seeing these strange and wonderful sights.

Charleton Delong read the Senior Epitaph which Edwin Coryell had written.

"Maroon and White," sung by the school, closed chapel.

HOW FRIDAY WAS OBSERVED BY THE R. A. C. CLUB

The Rinky-Dink Athletic Club celebrated national hobo day Friday. The club is comparatively new one and has a very large membership limited to boys in high school.

If there had been prizes for the best "outfit," Verne Wilcox would have taken it without competition. He wore a pair of old boots, a collar band with its gold collar button but lacking the collar, and a silk tie of cerise and purple. He had a pocket full of dress suit was a wonder, vest wrong side out, a coat with half the back missing, a package of Beechnut scrap in one pocket, a celery top in another and a handkerchief—of E. V. D's in a third. His hair was tousled in every way while the cap he wore came out of a rag bag. A celery top graced the lapel of his coat.

In the fifteen minute study period the many R. A. C. members grouped themselves about the piano in the Senior session room and sang "The Song of the Hobo" after Verne's "handkerchiefs" had raised to a dizzy height by the window shade to which it had been attached.

BIRMINGHAM LOSES FIRST GAME OF SEASON

Last year Northeastern beat the Birmingham five by one point. They were determined to give the villagers a good trimming this year, and when the two teams met in the Baldwin auditorium last Friday an exciting spirit was aroused. The way the visitors started out looked bad for the Birmingham bunch, and before the first three minutes elapsed Northeastern was leading by 8 to 0. Birmingham then changed the team around and things went a little better. At the end of the first half the score was 17 to 6.

In the second half the team played rings around the visitors. Never before did our team show up so well. They played about even, but in the second half, the Birmingham five left their opponents in the dust. There is sure some good material in this second team and with a little more coaching will beat any second team in the state.

SECOND TEAM VICTORS

The B. H. S. second team won from Northeastern in a hard fought game last Friday. In the first half the teams played about even, but in the second half, the Birmingham five left their opponents in the dust. There is sure some good material in this second team and with a little more coaching will beat any second team in the state.

Howard and Alvin Mudge, who were injured while working for the Detroit Edison Company, are well on their way to recovery. Howard Mudge was hurt Friday, Nov. 24, while working in a tree. Because of the high wind, the branch on which he stood broke, bringing him down with it. He was removed to Harper Hospital, Detroit, where he was taken care of for five days before he was brought to his home on Hamilton avenue. Alvin Mudge was hurt the same day at four o'clock in the afternoon. While trying to put a cross arm on a forty foot pole, near the 13 Mile road, the pole broke and fell on him. He is able to be up now and will resume his work shortly.

Theatres

At The I. O. O. F. Temple filled with red blood action and thrills galore, is William S. Hart's latest Paramount picture production, "Three Word Brand," which will be the feature at the I. O. O. F. Temple Saturday, Dec. 23. The scenes of the story are laid in the far west in the days when the pioneer settlers had to hack their paths through drives of hostile Indians, and in the action, Mr. Hart plays three roles—that of his pioneer father, a rancher and the governor of the state, the two latter being twin brothers.

A comedy, "Room 23" said to be full of funny situations, completes the bill for Saturday.

"The Bonnie Brier Bush," adapted from the novel by Ian MacLaren and the plays by James McArthur and Augustus Thomas, will be the feature attraction at the I. O. O. F. Temple Wednesday, Dec. 27. A magazine feature will also be shown.

Saturday, Dec. 23, will be the last free merchants' matinee. According to the announcement made by the management this week, in the future a small admission charge will be made.

"Peter Pan" Offering Of Bonstelle Company At Shubert-Michigan Miss Bonstelle, after several cablegrams to Sir James Barrie in England has finally secured permission to use "Peter Pan" as a special holiday attraction at the Shubert-Michigan. Mr. Barrie would only consent to release this play, the story of a boy who wouldn't grow up, to a production that Miss Bonstelle offer it as a holiday attraction, which custom has been followed in London, England, since 1904.

"Peter Pan" has been played in this country by Maude Adams, last being offered by her in Detroit in 1913, when she was 41. An interesting phase of the coming engagement will be that the public will have an opportunity to pass on three Peter Pans—Miss Ann Harding will be the first, then it will be played by Miss Jessie Bonstelle, and then by Miss Catherine Alexander, who replaces Miss Harding in the local organization, while Miss Harding replaces her with the Providence organization.

McIntyre and Heath in "Red Pepper" at the Garrick, Detroit

The insistent demand on the part of the management of the Garrick

Threats that the New York producing managers send their latest touring company to Detroit, has been effective with the Shubert offices, as McIntyre and Heath, the net team of comedians on the entire Shubert circuit will play an engagement at the Garrick as a special holiday attraction starting Sunday night, Dec. 24th. The big organization of musical comedy folk come to Detroit direct from a return engagement in New York. The play enjoyed quite a try-out last season, which continued up until the extremely hot weather when a short vacation was given the artists, and then a continued New York engagement was arranged for the month of September. In sending McIntyre and Heath to Detroit, the Messrs. Shubert have retained every last one of the original cast, even to the glorious array of girls, who won for themselves the distinction of being the fastest squad of stage beauties ever seen under one roof all last season.

The name of the musical comedy in which the noted comedians are appearing this season is "Red Pepper" and what little story is unfolded concerns chiefly a horse race over the Havana course in which a horse named "Red Pepper" is entered. They are raised horses, but not quite so foolish as the fun McIntyre and Heath furnish with their delightful foolery. From the time "Red Pepper" goes to the post there is no end of hilarity, and in the language of Jim McIntyre, "It isn't the fast horses that ruin you—it's the slow ones."

 —Tusser.

'Tis the day of days. With the first rays of light creeping through the eastern skies, there comes to us that message of the ages—"Peace on earth, good will toward men." How wonderful those words. They kindle in our hearts anew that feeling of brotherhood toward our fellow man. To our lips, they bring that smile of cheer that should grace every countenance on this glorious day.
