PLEASE PASS THE APPLES When every pool in Eden was a mirror, that unto Eve her dainty charms proclaimed.

That she was a beauty without a single fear or thought that she need to be ashamed.

That she was inclined to be a grade. And found that evermore she's have to grapple.

With the much debated problem of the maid and after her attention. Hereafter she devoted her attention.

And that was the beginning of civilization. And modesty as well, I do suppose.

Now girls conceal so little from men. That it would seem in name of all that's done in the name of love.

Some one should pass the apple round again. -Larcenia Democrat.
