FAY BAINTER IN "EAST IS WEST" AT THE GARRICK

At the Garrick theatre, starting next Sunday night, William Harris, Jr., will present for the first time here, Fay Bainter in "East is West." For two years glowing reports have been coming to us from New York's Rialto of this charming little Chinese-American comedy which vied with "Lightnin" for popularity on Broadway, and now, after patient waiting we are to have an opportunity to understand why. That Mr. Harris has one of the biggest dramatic hits of recent years in "East is West," and that Fay Bainter in the role of the girl heroine from the Celestial Empire has given the stage another of those delightful oriental characters creations that are so appealing, there can be no doubt.

The story of "East is West" concerns a young American who is sold by her father to a prosperous Chinese merchants of San Francisco and the eventful story of her life thereafter forms a colorful and interesting tale—one that would be spoiled by the telling in advance.

First Presbyterian Church

February lends itself to special days and occasions in the activities of the church. Be ready to join with us then these times come this month. This coming Sunday, Feb. 5th, the pastor will speak at both the morning and evening services. At 10:30 a.m. he will have as his theme, "An Expensive Trip." Railroad rates may be high, but there is something far costlier. In the evening at 7:30 he will speak on the subject, "Why They Loved Him." In between these gatherings there is Sunday school at 12 noon, and the young people's meeting at 6:30 p.m. There is a cordial welcome here for you.

Methodist Church

The Sunday morning 10:30 sermon subject, the first in a series on "God's Ownership—God's Ownership of My Personality." Sunday school at noon. There is a place for you. Epworth League at 6:30. Lantern slides. Song service. Mission group-study. At 7:30 evening sermon, the first in a Sunday night series on four great themes based upon the story of four great books. The first, "Pigmy Characters versus Princely Lives," based upon the great English book recently published, "The Glass of Fashion" by a Gentleman with a Dust. Many people have little time for reading. This is a chance to get the great sermon lesson of a great book, even though deprived of the opportunity of reading it.

Birmingham Gospel Tabernacle

Bishop J. M. Humphrey, noted evangelist, author and orator, will be with us from the 14th of February to the 26th, inclusive. Every evening at 7:30 except Saturdays. Mr. Humphrey is a colored man, risen from the depths like Booker T. Washington. He ministers more to the whites than to the colored folks. You will do well to hear him. The pastor will speak Sunday 10:30, subject, "Heroes of the Faith"; 7:30, "Your Pay Check." Bible school at 11:45; young people's meeting at 6:16.

Tuesday evening Bible study class for everybody, in Dispensational Truth, subject "Entering Into Rest." Thusday evening prayer and praise. You are welcome to all our meetings.

BIRMINGHAM GUN CLUB HOLDS MONTHLY PROGRAM

Rain Prevents Large Attendance; Club Seeks To Lower Price Of Ammunition

In spite of the rainy evening Wednesday, Feb. 1, the members of the Birmingham Gun Club who met for the monthly business meeting and supper, especially enjoyed the occasion, Bert Peabody, secretary of the organization, reports. About 40 guests were present at supper and in the afternoon, although it poured rain, there were 21 shooters out. Most of the shooters were from out of town, many being residents of Detroit, Pontiac and Royal Oak.

During the business meeting it was decided to send letters to all gun clubs in the state of Michigan asking them to join in a protest to the American Trap Shooters Association in New York City, to lower the cost of ammunition. This, the club feels, would make it possible for clubs in the state to become more democratic by enrolling the man with less means who is now being kept away by the present high cost of targets and ammunition. Two new members were admitted to the club Wednesday, Dr. C. G. Brown and William R. Shapland, both residents of Detroit. Following is a report of the shoot:

Weddings

Burnett—Schlinz

One of the extremely attractive weddings of local interest solemnized this winter was that of Miss Susie S. Burnett and Fred Schlinz which was an event of Jan. 27. The ceremony was performed at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. James Burnett, 804 Bates street, at 8 o'clock.

The bridal party took their places beneath a garden arch of pink and white blooms which graced one end of a long room. Rev. R. J. Klein of Detroit, read the marriage vows and the ring service was used. The wedding march was played by Mrs. R. J. Kleih, for many years a friend of the family. Miss Pauline Majeskey of Detroit, a former school friend of the bride, was bridesmaid, while John Way, also of Detroit, acted as best man.

The bride was a very attractive one, gowned in pale pink satin which contrasted charmingly with her dark coiffeur. Her arms were filled with white half blown roses and fraises. White tulle further enhanced the beauty of the bouquet. Miss Majeskey wore gray satin and carried pink rosebuds and sweet peas.

Following the ceremony a reception for close friends and members of the family was held. About fifty guests were in attendance. The at-home cards read 80 Nevada Highland Park, after Feb. 15.

"He Who Buys at Bell's is Wise."

The regular Thursday evening meetings which have been held in the Birmingham Gospel Tabernacle this winter have been especially popular with the members of the congregation, the pastor reports. A large attendance is seen at each gathering. Last evening the congregation attended a meeting in Detroit at the First Presbyterian church on Grand River avenue and heard a talk delivered by Dr. Tucker. The members went in a body and no meeting was held in Birmingham.
