CHAPTER XII—Continued.

"I don't hate him," she answered quickly. "I love him. And if he isn't just the place and the life..."

"I must go home—I must go back to Mart tomorrow," Cherry said, in a whispered undertone...

"Just a minute," Peter protested then. "I don't want to speak to you—will you wait a minute?"

"I happened to finish my novel," she said, "and I reached for Dad's old Bible—it was there on the shelf..."

"Really, Peter?" she asked, with dancing eyes. "And it means that you can keep the old home, isn't it?"

"That night when Alice had gone to bed, I sat on the sofa and thought of my dear old home..."

And in that moment, Alice came in, took the book she had dropped on one knee, the letter to reach a low shelf...

Cherry, her cold fingers still holding the piece in the book she had been reading, went blindly to the fireplace...

WONDERFUL DEVELOPMENT OF CANADA IN FORTY YEARS.

The recent announcement that the first section of Canada's Pacific line was sold forty years ago, and when you read that the first carload of wheat was shipped...

Forty years ago the shipment of one ton of grain was a notable exploit. Today, Canada ranks as the second largest wheat-producing country in the world...

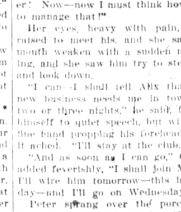

Forty years ago scarcely any of the rich soil had been brought under cultivation. The farm machinery of the time was primitive...

Today on these plains are to be seen herds of cattle, bands of horses and droves of sheep from any of which can usually be selected a fine animal...

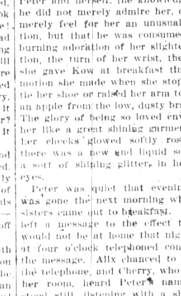

Mr. Brown was until recently a deacon in the Methodist church in his town. But recently he not only withdrew from his honored position...

Then She Remembered. Meeting a friend of mine, the wife of a bank treasurer, we stood talking the afternoon before last...

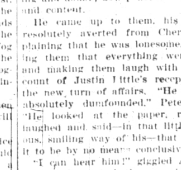

Not Really Remarkable. "Do you know anything about painting a picture?" she asked. "Oh, no much," he answered...

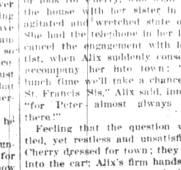

HE SEEMED ABSOLUTELY DUNDUNED.

HE CURED HER.

LET'S MAKE IT FIFTY-FIFTY.
