Wives and daughters of striking coal miners of Kansas at Pittsburg, meeting in a hall, they changed from the mines and forcing them to kiss the American flag and enroll themselves as strikers. The illustration also shows the women on the march.

HER MORNING CANTER

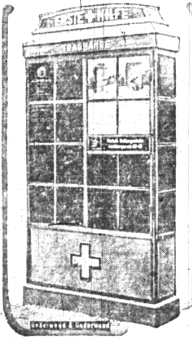

Mrs. Theodore Roosevelt, wife of the assistant secretary of the navy, started on her favorite horse daily on her morning ride in Washington. She still prefers the side saddle.

This Is Famous Paul Revere Bell

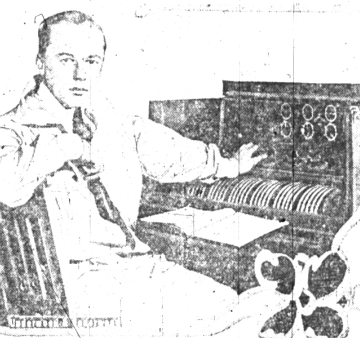

Next to the Liberty Bell in Independence Hall, Philadelphia, there probably is no more famous bell in the history of America than this one called the Paul Revere bell which hangs in the City Hall, Boston. It was cast in 1782 for the British troops and foundered in that famous battle. Paul Revere's bell.

FIRST AID IN BERLIN

Operated like a brook on the "break glass and pull cork" principle, these are public first aid stations, set up at frequent intervals in the Berlin streets, and handy in case of fire. Each cabinet contains a stretcher, medicines and first aid dressings.

Thomas Wilfred and His Color Organ

Thomas Wilfred, noted as his day's ray of color organ, a highly complicated mechanical instrument for the production of moving color and form in rhythm, which had its first public showing recently in New York. Mr. Wilfred is a naturalized Dane and well known here and abroad as a singer.

All He Had

The cadets were having rifle inspection. A lieutenant had just dispersed a rifle and handed it back to the young private in a most snappy manner. It was the private's first year in high school, and he was trying to be as snappy as the rest of them, so he made a very quick grab for his rifle. He grabbed the gun in a bit off balance. It swayed and he almost committed the unpardonable sin of dropping it. The young lieutenant roared like a veteran of many campaigns. "Don't you know where the balance of that gun?" "No, sir; that's all they gave me," stammered the rookie.

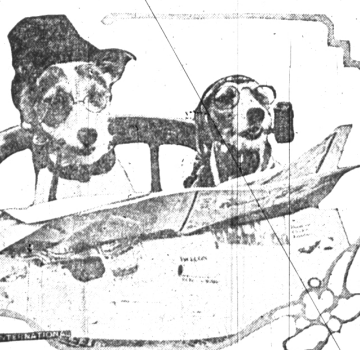

More Suitable Name

Little Willie had accompanied his mother to church, and on his way home he said: "Mamma, why do they call the minister 'Reverend'?" "He is called 'Reverend,'" she said, "not 'Reverend,'" explained his mother. "Well," said Willie, "I thought he would never get home."

Tulip Tree Has Outcry

The tulip tree, also called tulip poplar and yellow poplar, has clear yellow fall foliage, but as the leaves drop more quickly after turning than some of the other trees it does not always make as much show in the landscape as some of the other trees, says the American Forestry Magazine. It is worthy of planting for its yellow largest tree, oval-headed and of rapid growth. It is native from Pennsylvania to southern Ohio and Indiana southward.

Irish Couple Approves the Treaty

Here are Joan and Dobby, two full-blooded Irish terriers owned by a Dublin Sinn Feiner. They look perfectly contented as they read about the signing of the Irish peace treaty.

MUCH IN LITTLE

Old age pensioners of England number 925,000. Pythons will sometimes go nine months without eating. There are 9,000,000 cotton spindles in the mills of Lancashire. The women of Spain are credited with being the best dancers. The bill of the albatross is a pale pink color, shading to yellow at the tip. One-fifth of the medical students in London are women. The smallest practical airplane weighs about 500 pounds. One engineering works in England is managed entirely by women. Radium available for use throughout the world is valued at $17,000,000. The Papuan uses the spine of the sting ray for arrow points used in shooting fish.

CONDENSED CLASSICS

THE CRISIS

By WINSTON CHURCHILL

Condensation by William Howard Taft, ex-President of the United States

If Winston Churchill did not succeed in his attempt to become an aviator, he would have had a far different road in his regard to the entrance of America into the war. His books have appeared in the past, but increasing numbers as the years have passed, he has written "The Campaigns of 1862" and "Richard Carvel" in 1890. He later laid a firm foundation for the favor he has enjoyed in "The Crisis," 1901, and "The Crossing," 1904, "The Invasion," 1906, "The Invasion of 1910," "The Invasion of the Cape," 1911, "The
