MUTT AND JEFF AT THE SHUBERT-MICHIGAN

A welcome sure to warm the cockles of their dear old hearts undoubtedly awaits "Mutt and Jeff" when they appear at the Shubert-Michigan theatre in Detroit commencing Sunday matinee and continuing Monday and Tuesday matinees. The famous Bud Fisher comes as to appear in a brand new two-act musical play entitled, "Mutt and Jeff in Chinatown." The piece contains a well-defined plot, telling a story certain to interest and find inmate appeal. It is a tale of love, youth, frolic, music, revelry and romance with youth triumphant in the end. One of the many things which makes up a most exceptional feature of the highly-amusing dialogue in which Mutt figures, this bit is said to be a scorch from start to finish. Little Jeff, as formerly, is made "the buffer and goat" for the "big fellow," but in the end comes into his own outwitting his trader and tormentor.

EPWORTH LEAGUE MEMBERS TO HAVE EVENING STUDY HOUR

The members of the Epworth League of the M. E. church are to have the opportunity of enjoying an interesting study class starting next Sunday evening, Jan. 15. The book entitled "John Wesley, Jr." will be studied each evening. A number of the chapter will be studied. The story deals with a young man and his experiences on a large number of years on his later life. At the beginning of each evening's study colored slides will be shown to illustrate the scenes of that particular part of the book.
It is hoped the young people will turn out in large numbers for these studies as much thought and time has been expended to make them highly instructive and an enjoyment to the boys and girls.

"THE ROSE GIRL" AT THE GARRICK, DETROIT

One of the greatest charms of "The Rose Girl" which will be the colorful musical attraction at the Garrick Theatre, next week beginning Sunday night, is that it is the happiest possible blending of comedy with romance. Most of the music is said to be very successful and taster-ful and completely free from jazz or any other musical vulgarity. "The Rose Girl" scored an instant hit on the occasion of its presentation in New York last year and has just repeated this success during a run of many weeks at the Wilbur Theatre in Boston.

The story tells of a little French maid, by the name of Rosebud, who is being defrauded out of her inheritance by one Grouchy, overseer of the famous rose gardens of Ponticard, in Southern France. The child is really the heiress to this vast estate and this fact comes to the notice of Madame Donny, who conducts a gambling house in Paris, which induces that adventuress with her partner, Gaston Lamont, to lure the girl to the French capital with the promise that a musical future with wealth and luxury await her there.
From this point it is a tug-of-war between two sets of rascals for Rose-bud and her money.

Among the families who moved into recently completed homes in the Leontine-Humphrey Subdivision, south of the Village, the past week are Mr. and Mrs. Ferris Gillett, Mr. and Mrs. I. E. Stone and Mr. and Mrs. Dell, all from Detroit.
