"Ball Birmingham Go Forward!" Some Reflections on the Recent Bond Issue Vote

In a previous article in this column I stated that in my opinion that a goodly number of our conservative citizens would vote for further extension last Wednesday...

But the result of the ballot also showed that our people believe that additional water needed, and that through the right proposition along conservative lines of expenditure is submitted to them, they will not elect officials with their duty elected officials with the necessary funds.

As a matter of fact these 86 additional votes on our proposition also represented the extraordinary efforts made by the one faction who copied the poll in automobiles and injected the element of personal animosity into the contest...

These methods seemed to succeed for a moment, but they were not the group out for the $136,000 bond issue for the Adams school, the $140,000 are presented for payment...

WE HEARD IT SAID BY—

Billy Brown of Bates street: "A great deal of attention was paid by those who attended the polls at the special election a little over a week ago. Some of the folks asked as many questions, but one lady, apparently over-taxed with the momentary question of settling our age-old water dispute, went to sleep in the voting booth. A case of 'water on the brain' it would appear."

James W. Cobb, pharmacist: "The Village of Birmingham will never get anything until its citizens begin to scrap with one another. I have lived here for a number of years and have seen in a while and communal unalterably opposed to each other, would rise up in arms—yet they never accomplished much for the constructive betterment of the town."

Mr. A. Pressel, a resident of Park Hill, who has lived here for some time: "I have not read the 'Globe' for years, but I have seen the 'Globe' forwarded to me at once as I am a total loss about them."

There are a great many families in Birmingham that have small children, probably because Birmingham is such an ideal place in which to raise a family. It is also true that the mothers of Birmingham children are able to give them the little luxuries of life that many children in other parts of the country do not have.

It was estimated that the cost of widening this strip of Birmingham, including right-of-way, grading, paving, etc., will be in the neighborhood of $120,000.

The Oakland County Road Commissioners have reported that they have endeavored through the Oakland County Board of Supervisors, to raise one-half of this amount through taxation.

CANDIDATES FOR VILLAGE OFFICES WILL SOON APPEAR

Philip Schlaack Will Run For Re-election; President Cluzo Declines

Every year, about this time, there are whispered various names through the Village relative to possible candidates at the annual spring election for the filling of the vacancies caused by the expiration of the terms of Village President and one Commissioner.

So far, there is but one name mentioned for the office of Commissioner to fill the vacancy of the term of Philip Schlaack. That is Mr. Schlaack, himself.

There will be plenty of petitions circulated throughout Birmingham for candidates for both offices. It is an assured thing, and a lively one, for the office of Commissioner. All petitions for office will be filed at the Village Clerk's office not later than February 15.

At the time that the American delegates were returned from Russia the late Mayor Coughlin was invited to donate a plot in their cemetery for the interment of those who died at that time claimed by relatives.
